BURGLARS GET $900 IN SAFE AT AMVETS' HOME

State police today continued their search for burglars who broke open a safe at the Charles J. Gillian Post of the Amvets near Fairfield and stole approximately $900 in cash.

Two officers said the burglary apparently occurred during the early hours of Wednesday morning. It was discovered by Delmar Haines, Waynesboro, bartender for the post, when he arrived for work about noon Wednesday.

Police said Haines found the post's safe in the middle of the office with its top broken open. He immediately called state police.

Pried Window Open

The officers found the burglars had broken into the safe but had failed in attempts to reach the cash boxes on a cigarette machine and a "juke box," and had ransacked filing cabinets and drawers in the bar portion of the post home.

Investigation showed the burglars had pried open a window on the north side of the post home to enter the structure. After passing through a dining room section of the building, they came to the office located in a hallway opening from the front door of the building.

There they pulled the 800-pound, wheeled safe from its position along the wall and using heavy tools "ripped and peeled" the top from the safe in order to reach the money within it.

Drawers Ransacked

Police believe that while one or several of the burglars were engaged in opening the safe another went to the barroom where unsuccessful attempts were made to open the cigarette vending machine and juke box and search was made of the drawers and filing cabinets in the room. Membership records and other records of the post were apparently being searched for money, but none was in the drawers or filing cases. Whiskey on the bar was not touched.

The burglars, according to police, apparently made their exit from the building by way of a door on the south side of the structure.

STUDENT WORK PUBLISHED IN LINCOLN BOOK

Articles and poems by six area students, five from Emmitsburg and one from East Berlin High School, appear in a 72-page book published by the Lincoln Sesqui-centennial Commission of the United States as part of the observance of the 150th anniversary of the birth of Lincoln.

Entitled "Abraham Lincoln Through the Eyes of High School Youth" the book is designed to encourage "The Continuing Celebration of the Legacy of Lincoln." It concludes with suggestions to the teachers, prepared by the National Education Association, of ways to promote interest in Lincoln.

Jean D Grambs of the University of Maryland, who edited the book, noted that students throughout the nation sent in poems, essays, plays, and other material on Lincoln in such quantity that "all could not be included" and so it was "agreed that material would be included primarily on the basis of excellence."

Bright Omen

Rev. Fr. Paul C. Reinert, chairman of the Schools and Colleges Committee of the Lincoln Sesqui-centennial Commission, in his foreword to the book, held that the work of the young contributors "is a bright omen for the future of America, an America in which Lincoln will always be the Symbol of the Free Man."

The contributions accepted from the area youth included a lengthy poem entitled "Abe Lincoln" by John K. Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. D., a graduate of East Berlin High School who is entering Messiah College this fall. His interest was aroused in Lincoln and the Civil War period after a trip to

The Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association is $35 richer as a result of the activities of Peter Bower, aged 11, of Mechanicsburg.

Peter learned from a television show that Gettysburg's battlefield is in danger of commercialization unless funds are secured to purchase land long considered part of the battlefield but privately owned. He decided to hold a talent show, hobby show, doll show and bake sale combined.

A neighbor, Mrs. Frank A. Shireman Jr., agreed to assist. The show brought profits of $35 for the Battlefield Preservation Association and letters of thanks to Peter from John J. Coughlin, president of the association, Director Robert D. Hoffsummer and from Cliff Arquette.

INITIATION IS CONDUCTED BY VFW POST

The first in a series of initiations of members of the Gettysburg VFW was held Wednesday evening in connection with the regular meeting of the veterans' group at its home on E. Middle St.

Presenting the formal ritual of obligation for new members were Commander Wayne Asper, Senior Vice Commander Eugene Miller, Junior Vice Commander Robert Swisher, Chaplain J. Edward Kerrigan, Officer of the Day Norman Myers and Color Guards Charles Moser and William Orner.

Decision of the post to conduct initiations each meeting was made last month when discussion indicated that most of the members since World War II had not been present for a formal initiation and its lessons in patriotism. As a result, the post sent notices to approximately 25 members asking them to be present for the formal program. Lapel pins were presented to the first group which was initiated at Wednesday's meeting. Others will follow.

Quartermaster John Rummel reported the post has 782 regular and social members.

Plans were announced for the annual stag picnic to be held August 7 from 12 noon to 6 p.m. at the former CCC camp on W. Confederate Ave. The group voted to charge members $1 and their guests $2 for the event.

Post Adjutant Walter O. Powell reported on the 41st annual convention of the Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held at Harrisburg.

The post discussed the possibility of establishing a blood donor list, then at the suggestion of Robert Swisher, post representative on the Gettysburg Association of Clubs, decided to let the association consider first the possibility of securing a list of blood donors from all of the clubs of the town in cooperation with the Red Cross.

August 24 was announced as the time for the next meeting of the VFW.

Truck Hits Auto; Woman Is Injured

A car was badly damaged and a woman slightly injured when a truck rammed the rear of an auto on the north approach to the Rock Creek bridge on the Harrisburg Rd., a mile north of town about 11:15 o'clock this morning. State police from Gettysburg investigated.

Lawrence J. Hedges, Colliers, W. Va., slowed his car for a road roller and then was waved around the slow moving vehicle when his car was struck from the rear by a truck tractor and trailer operated by Hamlin G. Durrett, Petersburg, W. Va. Both were southbound when the crash occurred.

Mrs. Hedges was taken to the Warner Hospital where she was treated for a sprain of the back and allowed to leave.

The front of the truck was damaged and the rear and left side of the car were smashed. A guard rail along the bridge approach also was damaged. Police are continuing their investigation.

Landslide Nixon Nomination Closes GOP Ranks; Lodge Is Choice For V.P. Spot; Set Battle Line For Campaign

By JACK BELL
CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (AP)—The Republican ticket for 1960's crucial election will be: Vice President Richard M. Nixon for president and Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge for vice president.

A jubilant GOP convention made official on a single referendum ballot Wednesday night what long has appeared inevitable.

It nominated Nixon to battle Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic choice.

This will pit in the November balloting a 47-year-old Quaker, a relatively poor man and a self-proclaimed politician, against a 43-year-old Roman Catholic from a wealthy and politically experienced family.

In a post-midnight conference of the party's top leaders that lasted for 2½ hours, Nixon tapped Lodge, the United Nations ambassador, as his running mate.

Lodge's acceptance was a foregone conclusion. So was the convention's ratification tonight of his nomination for second place, despite the talk by Illinois Gov. William Stratton that some unnamed Midwesterner might be offered as a rival candidate.

By the tribal rite of consulting with the chiefs, Nixon hoped to avoid suggestions that he was dictating to the 1,331 delegates. He said those he consulted represented a cross section of the party and their decision could be considered "the sense of the convention."

Where Kennedy chose to try to appease Southern dissidents by the choice of Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as his running mate, Nixon bid for Eastern internationalist support in both parties with the selection of Lodge.

MRS. SHRYOCK EXPIRES AT 84

Mrs. Lydia (Little) S. Shryock, 84, widow of W. Brooks Shryock, Littlestown, died in the Warner Hospital at 6:45 o'clock this morning after having been admitted as a patient there on Tuesday. She resided with a daughter, Mrs. James W. Duttera, Littlestown R. 1. Her husband died 21 years ago.

Mrs. Shryock was a daughter of the late Daniel and Elizabeth C. (Patterson) Trostle. Surviving are four children, Walter D. and Mrs. Ernest R. Sentz, both of Littlestown; Mrs. Lloyd J. Spangler, Littlestown R. 1, and Mrs. Duttera at whose home she died. There are 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Three sisters also survive, Mrs. C. C. Mackley, Two Taverns; Mrs. S. C. Monn, Gardners, and Mrs. Elmer G. Peiffer, Waynesboro.

Mrs. Shryock was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church of Littlestown and of the Sunday School and Ladies' Aid Society of the church.

Nixon Selects Lodge For Veep

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon early today tapped Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to run with him as his vice presidential candidate in the campaign this fall.

Nixon made the announcement to a jammed news conference at 2:20 a.m. after a 2½-hour conference with a group of about 40 party leaders in his headquarters hotel.

It had been predicted all week that Lodge would be the choice for the No. 2 place on the ticket, but Nixon said only a few hours earlier, just before he was nominated for the presidency, that four men were still under consideration.

13 Persons Are Killed When Copter Crashes In Flames

By EARL AYKROID and BOB HINDS
CHICAGO (AP) — A brief helicopter hop between airports ended abruptly in fiery death in a gloomy suburban cemetery Wednesday night for all 13 persons aboard.

The helicopter, carrying 11 passengers and two crewmen, appeared to stop in air, witnesses reported, then veered a moment before plunging earthward.

"It was a big red flash," said Ed Gauger, who from his back porch watched the helicopter sweep in close over the trees and crash four blocks away. State trooper Henry Pilotto said the craft was afire before it crashed.

Crash Into Tombstones
The fuselage containing at least five bodies ripped into a cluster of tombstones and erupted in white-hot fury. The tail section with three bodies was more than 200 yards away.

All the victims were men, who came from a half dozen states in the Midwest and West Coast. The helicopter shuttle service is used primarily by air travelers who must go from one airport to the other to change flights.

Some of the bodies were burned black; others were twisted in grotesque shapes.

Gauger said he was certain the pilot veered from his regular course to avoid hitting the populated residential area.

Two Victims Of Accidental Treated

Two persons were treated at the Warner Hospital Tuesday for cuts sustained in minor accidents.

Ruth Nichols, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Littlestown R. 1, was treated for cuts on the right arm and knee and multiple lacerations of the right shoulder and knee sustained when she fell while riding her bicycle.

Paul Moritz, 51, Fairfield R. 1, was treated for a cut wrist when a piece of steel from an ax he was using entered his left wrist.

DISCOUNT ON TAXES OFFERED THRU MONDAY

If Gettysburg's taxpayers visit the tax collector by Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, they'll save $1,060.03.

Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert has announced plans to allow the two per cent discount on taxes through Monday, August 1. Normally the abatement is dropped as of July 31 and county and borough taxes are "at par" following that date.

Weikert said however that since July 31 falls on Sunday he has decided to give the taxpayers the additional day of grace.

$172,829.17 Already In
So far Gettysburg taxpayers have paid $172,829.17 on their total tax bill of $455,827.22.

The two per cent rebate ending Tuesday will occur on only 36 per cent of the taxes, those levied by the town, county, institution district and the personal property tax on the county.

For 64 per cent of the taxes—those levied by the school district—the taxpayers will continue to receive the two per cent rebate up to September 30.

Current Tax Figures

Of the $455,827.22 total tax levy, Gettysburg borough will obtain $87,215.02 from its 16-mill tax; the county is to receive $38,646.28 from its seven-mill tax; the institution district's 3½-mill tax amounts to $19,333.65 and from the county's four mill tax on personal property—things like mortgages, etc., held by but a relative handful of residents, the county will receive $18,791.35. The school district levy on the people of the town is $291,840.92 which represents about half of the cost of operation of the school system—the rest comes from the state.

Townfolk have paid up well so far on their borough, county and institution district taxes — with $110,970.87 of the total of $163,986.30 paid.

So far $61,838.30 has been paid on the school tax bill.

OSTRANDER IS AWARDED PILOT STUDY GRANT

Dr. Edward R. Ostrander, assistant professor of psychology at Gettysburg College, has received a $2,300 grant from the National Institute of Mental Health to conduct a research project on "impression formation," according to an announcement today from the college news office.

Learning more precisely how a person forms an impression of other persons is the objective of the social-psychological research study. An important element in the project is to discover how words such as "intelligent, industrious, stubborn and envious" are interpreted when used to describe people.

Over 300 male and female college students participated in the first phase of the study. A portion of the subjects told how they "sized up" an imaginary person on the basis of information given by the test words. Another group of subjects was given the same information — but in a different sequence.

Project Aim

The project aims to find out in part whether the sequence in which information is received affects our evaluation of a person. It will also cast light upon differences in conceptions of words among people. It will show, for example, any tendency among

J. R. WEAVER GIVEN COURT HOUSE WORK

The Adams County commissioners' clerk said today that J. R. Weaver Co., Chambersburg St., has been authorized to install sound proofing and air conditioning in the court room at a cost of $13,783.

Crosby N. Hartzell, clerk, said the bid by Weaver had been approved by the commissioners, the court and Burgess Wilbur L. Plank who had been called in as an engineer Tuesday when the commissioners, deciding that as laymen they could not be certain which was the low bid of two submitted, Plank's Electric, York St., which had submitted the other bid withdrew because it was learned that equipment needed could not be secured in time to complete the work by the opening of the August term of court, as had been stipulated: The contracts will not be signed until Saturday or next Wednesday.

Will Start Immediately

Hartzell said he understood Weaver planned to begin the work immediately.

The work will include the closing of windows of the court room as a sound proofing measure. Engineers said that the only way to eliminate street traffic noise which drowned out court activities and which has been a source of complaint by several grand juries is to close the windows. Air conditioning is required to provide fresh air to the rooms.

2 BATTLEFIELD AVENUES WILL BE REMOVED

Two battlefield avenues which resounded to the sound of horses' hoofs and the rattle of wagon wheels in the days when veterans returned to the field where they fought have disappeared.

Assistant Park Superintendent Samuel G. Sollenberger said Matland Brothers, Littlestown, in connection with their contract to resurface 2½ miles of battlefield avenue have removed the base for the 1,600-foot loop which until this month extended from Hancock Ave. south of the High Water Mark, around the U. S. Regulars' monument and back to Hancock Ave.

Also removed by Matlands was Chamberlain Ave., which wound for several hundred feet around the southeast slope of Little Round Top.

Used By Few

All that remains to mark the avenues now is the freshly turned earth marking their former location. This fall the ground will be seeded and by next summer it is anticipated there will be little evidence that the areas once were roads.

Superintendent Sollenberger said the park decided to do away with the two avenues because "nobody used them anymore."

The loop around the U. S. Regulars' monument never attracted many visitors and with the advent of the auto few made the brief trip around the monument.

Chamberlain Ave. once was a busy thoroughfare in the days when it was the only way down the south side of Little Round Top. Even when the auto forced abandonment of tight curves on battlefield avenues many years ago, Chamberlain was retained, despite the new avenue paralleling it, because it was in good condition. Now when it came time to resurface, the park service decided its use did not warrant the cost. There will remain a walkway to the few monuments along it.

Work of resurfacing the 2½ miles of avenue is to be completed in about ten days. This fall sodding will be placed to the edges of the surfaced roads.

Bucked Traffic On 1-Way Street; Fined

Robert G. Rummel, Aspers R. 1, was committed to the Franklin County jail Wednesday in default of $5 fine and $9 costs levied by Justice of the Peace John S. Gillan in Chambersburg following his arraignment on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct filed Wednesday morning by Chambersburg Borough police.

Rummel was arrested by police at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday after he allegedly drove his automobile against traffic in N. Main St., a one-way street. He was held overnight in the lockup at police headquarters.

In Lodge, he got one of the men who sparked the drive that gave Eisenhower the presidential nomination in 1952. But he also got a former senator who was defeated by Kennedy in the Massachusetts senatorial race that year.

Lodge is 58, Johnson 51. Nixon's acceptance speech tonight is expected to cut the pattern for an intensive, fighting campaign he has said will take him into nearly every state in the union.

Lodge, scheduled to arrive in late afternoon, also is to accept in brief remarks. The two nominees may mesh campaign plans in weekend conferences.

Nixon's nomination came with machine-like precision on a single ballot from a convention that long ago had determined on him as the party standardbearer.

Nixon Selects Lodge For Veep

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon early today tapped Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to run with him as his vice presidential candidate in the campaign this fall.

Nixon made the announcement to a jammed news conference at 2:20 a.m. after a 2½-hour conference with a group of about 40 party leaders in his headquarters hotel.

It had been predicted all week that Lodge would be the choice for the No. 2 place on the ticket, but Nixon said only a few hours earlier, just before he was nominated, that four men were still under consideration.

13 Persons Are Killed When Copter Crashes In Flames

By EARL AYKROID

CHICAGO (AP) — A brief helicopter hop between airports ended abruptly in fiery death in a gloomy suburban cemetery Wednesday night for all 13 persons aboard.

The helicopter, carrying 11 passengers and two crewmen, appeared to stop in air, witnesses reported, then veered a moment before plunging earthward. "It was a big red flash," said Ed Gauger, who from his back porch watched the helicopter sweep in close over the trees and crash four blocks away. State trooper Henry Pilotto said the craft was afire before it crashed.

Crash Into Tombstones

The fuselage containing at least five bodies ripped into a cluster of tombstones and erupted in white-hot fury. The tail section with three bodies was more than two blocks away.

All the victims were men, who came from a half dozen states in the Midwest and West Coast. The helicopter shuttle service is used primarily by air travelers who must go from one airport to the other to change flights. Some of the bodies were burned black; others were twisted in grotesque shapes.

Plane Was Backfiring
"The plane was backfiring and definitely losing altitude," he said. "My wife shouted, 'it's going down.' I think the pilot knew something was wrong and was trying to get away from the houses."

An official of the company, Chicago Helicopter Airways, Inc., said it appeared the tail section of the helicopter, similar to one used Wednesday by President Eisenhower on a visit to the Republican National Convention, apparently fell off in flight.

A 600-foot slash in the tree tops approaching the crash scene indicated the pilot, Robert Meyer, 37, of Worth, Ill., fought desperately to gain altitude until the final moment. Meyer had flown for the line for 10 years.

Ruth Nichols, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Littlestown R. 1, was treated for cuts on the right arm and knee and multiple lacerations of the right shoulder and knee sustained when she fell while riding her bicycle.

Paul Moritz, 51, Fairfield R. 1, was treated for a cut wrist when a piece of steel from an ax he was using entered his left wrist.

DISCOUNT ON TAXES OFFERED THRU MONDAY

If Gettysburg's taxpayers visit the tax collector by Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, they'll save $1,060.03.

Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert has announced plans to allow the two per cent discount on taxes through Monday, August 1. Normally the abatement is dropped as of July 31 and county and borough taxes are "at par" following that date.

Weikert said however that since July 31 falls on Sunday he has decided to give the taxpayers the additional day of grace.

$172,829.17 Already In
So far Gettysburg taxpayers have paid $172,829.17 on their total tax bill of $455,827.22.

The two per cent rebate ending Tuesday will occur on only 36 per cent of the taxes, those levied by the town, county, institution district and the personal property tax on the county.

For 64 per cent of the taxes—those levied by the school district—the taxpayers will continue to receive the two per cent rebate up to September 30.

Current Tax Figures

Of the $455,827.22 total tax levy, Gettysburg borough will obtain $87,215.02 from its 16-mill tax; the county is to receive $38,646.28 from its seven-mill tax; the institution district's 3½-mill tax amounts to $19,333.65 and from the county's four mill tax on personal property—things like mortgaged, etc., held by but a relative handful of residents, the county will receive $18,791.35. The school district levy on the people of the town is $291,840.92 which represents about half of the cost of operation of the school system—the rest comes from the state.

Townfolk have paid up well so far on their borough, county and institution district taxes—with $110,970.87 of the total of $163,966.30 paid.

So far $61,858.30 has been paid on the school tax bill.

OSTRANDER IS AWARDED PILOT STUDY GRANT

Dr. Edward R. Ostrander, assistant professor of psychology at Gettysburg College, has received a $2,300 grant from the National Institute of Mental Health to conduct a research project on "impression formation," according to an announcement today from the college news office.

Learning more precisely how a person forms an impression of other persons is the objective of the social-psychological research study. An important element in the project is to discover how words such as "intelligent, industrious, stubborn and envious" are interpreted when used to describe people.

Over 300 male and female college students participated in the first phase of the study. A portion of the subjects told how they "sized up" an imaginary person on the basis of information given by the test words. Another group of subjects was given the same information—but in a different sequence.

Project Aim

The project aims to find out in part whether the sequence in which information is received affects our evaluation of a person. It will also cast light upon differences in conceptions of words among people. It will show, for example, any tendency among (Continued On Page 3)

J. R. WEAVER GIVEN COURT HOUSE WORK

The Adams County commissioners' clerk said today that J. R. Weaver Co., Chambersburg St., has been authorized to install sound proofing and air conditioning in the court room at a cost of $13,783.

Crosby N. Hartzell, clerk, said the bid by Weaver had been approved by the commissioners, the court and Burgess Wilbur L. Plank who had been called in as an engineer Tuesday when the commissioners, deciding that as laymen they could not be certain which was the low bid of two submitted, Plank's Electric, York St., which had submitted the other bid withdrew because it was learned that equipment needed could not be secured in time to complete the work by the opening of the August term of court, as had been stipulated. The contracts will not be signed until Saturday or next Wednesday.

Will Start Immediately

Hartzell said he understood Weaver planned to begin the work immediately.

The work will include the closing of windows of the court room as a sound proofing measure. Engineers said that the only way to eliminate street traffic noise which drowned out court activities and which has been a source of complaint by several grand juries is to close the windows. Air conditioning is required to provide fresh air to the rooms.

2 BATTLEFIELD AVENUES WILL BE REMOVED

Two battlefield avenues which resounded to the sound of horses' hoofs and the rattle of wagon wheels in the days when veterans returned to the field where they fought have disappeared.

Assistant Park Superintendent Samuel G. Sollenberger said Maitland Brothers, Littlestown, in connection with their contract to resurface 23½ miles of battlefield avenue have removed the base for the 1,600-foot loop which until this month extended from Hancock Ave. south of the High Water Mark, around the U. S. Regulars' monument and back to Hancock Ave.

Also removed by Maitlands was Chamberlain Ave. which wound for several hundred feet around the southeast slope of Little Round Top.

Used By Few

All that remains to mark the avenues now is the freshly turned earth marking their former location. This fall the ground will be seeded and by next summer it is anticipated there will be little evidence that the areas once were roads.

Superintendent Sollenberger said the park decided to do away with the two avenues because "nobody used them anymore."

The loop around the U. S. Regulars' monument never attracted many visitors and with the advent of the auto few made the brief trip around the monument.

Chamberlain Ave. once was a busy thoroughfare in the days when it was the only way down the south side of Little Round Top. Even when the auto forced abandonment of tight curves on battlefield avenues many years ago, Chamberlain was retained, it became it was in good condition. Now when it came time to resurface, the park service decided its use did not warrant the cost. There will remain a walkway to the few monuments along it.

Work of resurfacing the 23½ miles of avenue is to be completed in about ten days. This fall sodding will be placed to the edges of the surfaced roads.

Bucked Traffic On 1-Way Street; Fined

Robert G. Rummel, Aspers R. 1, was committed to the Franklin County jail Wednesday in default of $5 fine and $9 costs levied by Justice of the Peace John S. Gillan in Chambersburg following his arraignment on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct filed Wednesday morning by Chambersburg Borough police.

Rummel was arrested by police at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday after he allegedly drove his automobile against traffic in N. Main St., a one-way street. He was held overnight in the lockup at police headquarters.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Robert C. Peters is convalescing at his home, Gettysburg R. 3, after having been discharged from Carlisle Hospital Wednesday. He had been admitted to the hospital a week ago.

CLUB OFFERING MEMORIAL GIFT TO LIBRARIES

Application forms for the 1961 Dorothy Canfield Fisher Library Awards may now be obtained by interested libraries through the head of their State Library Extension Agency.

The award, an annual grant of $5,000 and nine supplementary grants of $1,000 each for the purchase of books, is made each year to libraries in the United States selected by the Book-of-the-Month Club with the advice and cooperation of the American Library Association. Preference is given to libraries in small communities which frequently have difficulty in raising money to stock their shelves properly.

To be considered for the award, a public library must serve a population of fewer than 25,000 (1960 census). The library itself must be housed in a building capable of providing shelf and display space for a substantial number of additional books. It must be open to the public free of charge five days a week, including some evening hours. The community in which the library is situated must support it adequately and make active use of its present facilities. At least half of the annual total support of the library must be derived from public funds.

The award is in the form of cash gifts, the only stipulation being that the money is used for the purchase of books. Official presentation of the awards will be made on April 16, 1961, the first Sunday of National Library Week.

All libraries that feel qualified are invited to apply for the 1961 award through the head of their State Library Extension Agency. The agency will have the responsibility of submitting two applicants from their state to the Book-of-the-Month Club before midnight, October 17. No application will be considered that is not endorsed by a state agency head.

A committee of three librarians appointed by the president of the Public Library Association will screen the applicants and select 10 they consider most worthy and promising. The Book-of-the-Month Club will choose the winner of the principal $5,000 award from these 10. The remaining nine libraries will receive a supplementary grant of $1,000 each.

Reds Unhappy Over Nixon Win

MOSCOW (AP) — Richard M. Nixon drew bitter words today from Moscow Pravda, the newspaper of the city Communist party. In story and cartoon, it called the Republican presidential nominee "a weather cock and chameleon."

Moscow Pravda charged Nixon was linked with Wall Street bankers and with McCarthyism. It said he is an advocate of brinkmanship who "supported the cause of 'liberation of Eastern Europe,' which it interpreted as creating conspiracies in Communist-bloc countries."

Soviet newspapers have not paid half as much attention to the Republican National Convention as to the Democratic. Most have ignored the Chicago proceedings.

Letter To The Editor

Gettysburg, Pa.
Dear Editor,

During the past few days I spent a night in Gettysburg. May I express my thanks for the very nice manner the police at Lincoln Square answered my questions and directed me to my destination.

My stay in your city was a very pleasant one. I hope someday to return and continue my survey of the battlefield. Although I have read and reread the history of this battle, I have yet to reach the point where I can say I have analyzed it completely.

Inwardly I am very happy to have slept so very close to your sacred cemetery and to have attended Mass in St. Francis Xavier Church Sunday morning.

In closing I hope all the people visiting you come away with the deep feeling for your city I have.

UNITED CONGO CRIES GREET U.N. SECRETARY

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Cries of "Long live free Congo" and "We demand a united Congo" greeted Dag Hammarskjöld today on his arrival in Leopoldville for a survey of the infant nation's grave ills.

The U.N. secretary-general found the young republic rapidly being pacified by U.N. task forces but facing acute economic and political problems.

He hurried to Leopoldville from Brussels, where Belgian Premier Gaston Eyskens and other officials bluntly told him to keep hands off Katanga, the rich, secessionist province being policed by Belgian troops.

Troops Control

U.N. forces control most of the major cities in the rest of the country. There have been no major disturbances reported in the past few days.

Hammarskjöld flew to Brazzaville, in the former French Congo, and crossed the Congo River to Leopoldville by launch.

Subdue Mutiny

More than 9,000 multiracial troops have been rushed here under the U.N. flag. Most of the units of mutinous Congolese soldiers have been subdued.

World Health Organization doctors have assessed the country's medical situation and international medical teams are arriving with trained personnel and drugs.

The most urgent task confronting Hammarskjöld is to save the African republic from economic collapse within a month of its birth. The young nation's treasury is running dry, and the U.N. already has arranged emergency bank loans to tide the government over.

Shenandoah Has Largest Throng

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Shenandoah Downs got back on the record trail Wednesday night when 5,798 persons turned up for a new Wednesday high, but betting fell a little short of the previous high, hitting $267,680.

Five fans in the record throng took home $2,015 each as they correctly tagged five winners in the Big Bonanza and grabbed the lion's share of the $16,744 pool. Ninety-four patrons picked five winners to earn $45.80.

General Manager Bob Levitt was pleased that Shenandoah Downs is maintaining its torrid pace in the face of the competition from the Republican National Convention. "If we keep up the current rate, we will go into next week with a $320,000 betting average," he pointed out. "Next week" is what Shenandoah Downs management has been waiting for, for almost two years. Delaware Park closes Saturday and the night track will have its first chance to test its pulling power without major competition, going two weeks before Timonium opens.

A field of seven routers will face the starter in tonight's Soroptimist Club purse at the mile distance. Harridan, Maiden Auntie and Blossom Maid, all with good races at this meeting, head the field. Could Be Said, Norfolk Pearl, Main Line Joe and Flyway Flyer round out the field.

IKE TO VISIT JAMBOREE

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower decided to pay a visit today to the Boy Scout Jamboree near Colorado Springs, 50 miles south of Denver.

Eisenhower, relaxing in Colorado for a few days after attending the Republican National Convention in Chicago, arranged to travel by automobile to the encampment of almost 57,000 scouts from all sections of the country.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said the President had no plans to make a speech.

Eisenhower, who is honorary president of the Boy Scouts, plans to return to Denver immediately after touring the encampment.

It was in this Colorado capital that Eisenhower eight years ago this month was planning the political campaign that took him to the White House.

PHILLIES WIN WITH 15 HITS

CHICAGO (AP) — The seventh-place Philadelphia Phillies now have hiked their lead to 3½ games over last place Chicago with their second straight victory over the Cubs.

The Phillies beat the Cubs 7-5 Wednesday with a four-run rally in the fifth inning sparked by Bobby Del Greco's pinchhit homer which followed a home run by Pancho Herrera.

The Phillies collected 15 hits, largest production in their last 49 games. Their run total was the biggest in the last three weeks.

Tony Taylor and Ken Walters each collected three hits for the Phillies as the Cubs dropped their sixth straight.

Gene Conley (7-6) was the winner. Dick Farrell replaced him in the eighth and gave up two runs in the ninth.

The loss was charged to Seth Morehead (1-7).

Police Here Seek Escaped Youth, 18

State police this afternoon continued a search for Harry Edward Carbaugh Jr., 18, Waynesboro R. 4, who escaped from a Franklin County deputy sheriff at 10:10 o'clock this morning in Mechanicsburg and who may have headed toward Adams County.

Police said Carbaugh was being transported from Chambersburg to White Hill Industrial School for incarceration when he leaped from the deputy's car when it halted for a stop sign at Simpson and Gale Sts., Mechanicsburg.

According to information furnished police here, the youth is five feet, ten inches tall, weighs 135 pounds, has blonde hair, fair complexion and a slender build. At the time he escaped he wore a tan shirt, light tan pants and a handcuff was attached to his left wrist.

Soviets Hold 7 Students Over Magazine Incident

MOSCOW (AP)—Seven American students were held by police today in a downtown Moscow hotel after they distributed the magazine "Amerika" in front of the hotel.

Amerika is a handsomely illustrated slick-paper magazine published by the United States in the Russian language and intended to explain the United States to Russians. It is distributed in the U.S.S.R. on a strictly limited quota basis in return for permission to the Soviet Union to distribute a similar magazine on a limited basis in the United States.

One of the students, identified by the U. S. Embassy only as McGovern, managed to slip away from the hotel and tip off the embassy.

Negotiate Release

An embassy official rushed to the hotel and began negotiating for release of the students.

The incident is similar to one over the weekend when six American students were temporarily held for distributing the same magazine, which is issued by the U. S. State Department.

The first group was released after signing statements, the contents of which they claim they did not understand since the statements were in Russian.

The magazine is issued monthly and attempts to present an objective picture of the United States with extensive illustrations.

About 50,000 copies are printed monthly but an embassy spokesman said from 200 to 400 copies are returned monthly by Soviet officials as undistributable. These are stacked in the reception room of the embassy and tourists may take as many as they want. This is where the students got them.

In today's case the students took about 50 copies and parked themselves in their car in front of the hotel and began passing them out. Their activities attracted a crowd of curious Russians and a policeman from the hotel. He took them into custody, then escorted them into the hotel.

An embassy spokesman said the students demanded permission to phone the embassy, but were refused. At this point McGovern slipped away.

The embassy said both groups of students were here as tourists. Four of today's group were described by the embassy as being on an automobile camping tour of the Soviet Union.

CLUB OFFERING MEMORIAL GIFT TO LIBRARIES

Application forms for the 1961 Dorothy Canfield Fisher Library Awards may now be obtained by interested libraries through the head of their State Library Extension Agency.

The award, an annual grant of $5,000 and nine supplementary grants of $1,000 each for the purchase of books, is made each year to libraries in the United States selected by the Book-of-the-Month Club with the advice and cooperation of the American Library Association. Preference is given to libraries in small communities which frequently have difficulty in raising money to stock their shelves properly.

To be considered for the award, a public library must serve a population of fewer than 25,000 (1960 census). The library itself must be housed in a building capable of providing shelf and display space for a substantial number of additional books. It must be open to the public free of charge five days a week, including some evening hours. The community in which the library is situated must support it adequately and make active use of its present facilities. At least half of the annual total support of the library must be derived from public funds.

The award is in the form of cash gifts, the only stipulation being that the money is used for the purchase of books. Official presentation of the awards will be made on April 16, 1961, the first Sunday of National Library Week.

All libraries that feel qualified are invited to apply for the 1961 award through the head of their State Library Extension Agency. The agency will have the responsibility of submitting two applicants from their state to the Book-of-the-Month Club before midnight October 17. No application will be considered that is not endorsed by a state agency head.

A committee of three librarians appointed by the president of the Public Library Association will screen the applicants and select 10 they consider most worthy and promising. The Book-of-the-Month Club will choose the winner of the principal $5,000 award from these 10. The remaining nine libraries will receive a supplementary grant of $1,000 each.

Fire Auxiliary Plans Fair, Play

Activities August 5 and 8 will replace the August meeting of the Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Department, it was announced today.

Normally the meeting would have been held Monday, but the group decided to abandon the session because of plans for a Sample Fair at the Recreation Park August 5 and attendance at a Totem Pole play August 8.

Members are asked to turn in samples and door prizes they have collected to Mrs. Glenn Raffensperger, 39 South St., by Tuesday and all members are asked to be at the Recreation Park dining hall at 8 o'clock on the morning of August 5 to set up arrangements for the Sample Fair.

Those planning to attend the theater party August 8 are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler by Monday. The bus for the Totem Pole Playhouse will leave the Gettysburg High School parking lot at 7:15 o'clock on the evening of August 8.

Letter To The Editor

Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pa.
Dear Editor,

During the past few days I spent a night in Gettysburg. May I express my thanks for the very nice manner the police at Lincoln Square answered my questions and directed me to my destination.

My stay in your city was a very pleasant one. I hope someday to return and continue my survey of the battlefield. Although I have read and reread the history of this battle, I have yet to reach the point where I can say I have analyzed it completely.

Inwardly I am very happy to have slept so very close to your sacred cemetery and to have attended Mass in St. Francis Xavier Church Sunday morning.

In closing I hope all the people visiting you come away with the deep feeling for your city I have.

UNITED CONGO CRIES GREET U.N. SECRETARY

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Cries of "Long live free Congo" and "We demand a united Congo" greeted Dag Hammarskjöld today on his arrival in Leopoldville for a survey of the infant nation's grave ills.

The U.N. secretary-general found the young republic rapidly being pacified by U.N. task forces but facing acute economic and political problems.

He hurried to Leopoldville from Brussels, where Belgian Premier Gaston Eyskens and other officials bluntly told him to keep hands off Katanga, the rich, secessionist province being policed by Belgian troops.

U.N. forces control most of the major cities in the rest of the country. There have been no major disturbances reported in the past few days.

Hammarskjöld flew to Brazzaville, in the former French Congo, and crossed the Congo River to Leopoldville by launch.

Subdue Mutiny
More than 9,000 multiracial troops have been rushed here under the U.N. flag. Most of the units of mutinous Congolese soldiers have been subdued.

World Health Organization doctors have assessed the country's medical situation and international medical teams are arriving with trained personnel and drugs.

The most urgent task confronting Hammarskjöld is to save the African republic from economic collapse within a month of its birth. The young nation's treasury is running dry, and the U.N. already has arranged emergency bank loans to tide the government over.

Shenandoah Has Largest Throng

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Shenandoah Downs got back on the record trail Wednesday night when 5,798 persons turned up for a new Wednesday high, but betting fell a little short of the previous high, hitting $267,680.

Five fans in the record throng took home $2,015 each as they correctly tagged five winners in the Big Bonanza and grabbed the lion's share of the $16,744 pool. Ninety-four patrons picked five winners to earn $45.80.

General Manager Bob Levitt was pleased that Shenandoah Downs is maintaining its torrid pace in the face of the competition from the Republican National Convention. "If we keep up the current rate, we will go into next week with a $320,000 betting average," he pointed out. "Next week" is what Shenandoah Downs management has been waiting for, for almost two years. Delaware Park classes Saturday and the night track will have its first chance to test its pulling power without major competition, going two weeks before Timonium opens.

A field of seven routers will face the starter in tonight's Soroptimist Club purse at the mile distance. Harriard, Maiden Auntie and Blossom Maid, all with good races at this meeting, head the field. Could Be Said, Norfolk Pearl, Main Line Joe and Flyway Flyer round out the field.

Soviets Hold 7 Students Over Magazine Incident

MOSCOW (AP)—Seven American students were held by police today in a downtown Moscow hotel after they distributed the magazine "Amerika" in front of the hotel.

Amerika is a handsomely illustrated slick-paper magazine published by the United States in the Russian language and intended to explain the United States to Russians. It is distributed in the U.S.S.R. on a strictly limited quota basis in return for permission to the Soviet Union to distribute a similar magazine on a limited basis in the United States.

One of the students, identified by the U. S. Embassy only as McGovern, managed to slip away from the hotel and tip off the embassy.

Negotiate Release
An embassy official rushed to the hotel and began negotiating for release of the students.

The incident is similar to one over the weekend when six American students were temporarily held for distributing the same magazine, which is issued by the U. S. State Department.

Reds Unhappy Over Nixon Win

MOSCOW (AP) — Richard M. Nixon drew bitter words today from Moscow Pravda, the newspaper of the city Communist party. In story and cartoon, it called the Republican presidential nominee "a weather cock and chameleon."

Moscow Pravda charged Nixon was linked with Wall Street bankers and with McCarthyism. It said he is an advocate of brinkmanship who "supported the cause of 'liberation of Eastern Europe,'" which it interpreted as creating conspiracies in Communist-bloc countries.

Soviet newspapers have not paid half as much attention to the Republican National Convention as to the Democratic. Most have ignored the Chicago proceedings.

IKE TO VISIT JAMBOREE

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower decided to pay a visit today to the Boy Scout Jamboree near Colorado Springs, 50 miles south of Denver.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said the President had no plans to make a speech.

Eisenhower, who is honorary president of the Boy Scouts, plans to return to Denver immediately after touring the encampment.

It was in this Colorado capital that Eisenhower eight years ago this month was planning the political campaign that took him to the White House.

Tony Taylor and Ken Walters each collected three hits for the Phillies as the Cubs dropped their sixth straight.

Gene Conley (7-6) was the winner. Dick Farrell replaced him in the eighth and gave up two runs in the ninth.

The loss was charged to Seth Morehead (1-7).

National Open Champion Betsy Rawls, Mickey Wright, defending titlist Bev Hanson and hometown sweetheart Patty Berg were among the top-ranked favorites in the 72-hole meet opening today.

All expected to shoot under par 75 at roomy, 6,400-yard Hiawatha course.

This is one of the easiest courses we've seen on the tour," said Jackie Pung. "The fairways are good and there is almost no trouble. A 286 ought to win."

Sammy Kaye To Play Hershey

HERSHEY, Pa.—Sammy Kaye, a perennial favorite with dancers and listeners alike, returns with his swing and sway band to the Starlight Ballroom of Hershey Park Saturday, July 30. Hailed as one of the perfect bands for dancing, Sammy Kaye has proved through the years that his is also the ideal listening combination. Record sales totaling more than 30 million retail discs attest to the fact that the nation really likes to "Swing and Sway with Sammy Kaye."

The name of "Sammy Kaye" on a phonograph record is like "Sterling" on silver. His Columbia records are consistently on the best-seller lists. When Kaye joined the Columbia waxery in 1950, after a long association with Victor, his first platter "Harbor Lights," immediately rang the bell, selling close to a million. Kaye is the only recording artist in history to have three of his discs simultaneously listed among the top 10 best sellers—"It Isn't Fair," "Roses" and "Wanderin'." His version of "Daddy" is one of the all-time national best sellers. In fact Kaye's new version of "Daddy Cha Cha" is a best seller of the day. Sammy has also garnered fame as a songwriter. Among his tunes are "Until Tomorrow," "Remember Pearl Harbor," "I Want to Wish You a Merry Christmas," "Wanderin'" and "Hawaiian Sunset." Even today, years after its composition, "Hawaiian Sunset" is still played almost daily on stations and in night clubs in Hawaii.

Littlestown STREET, SEWER MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON BY COUNCIL

Street and sewer problems were the principal matters before the Littlestown borough council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the office of Secretary Roger J. Keefe, 32 N. Queen St., Littlestown.

Reports showed "some difficulty" on the part of property owners on Pennsylvania and Delaware Avenues and W. Myrtle St. in obtaining grades for required construction of curbs and sidewalks. Council directed that the proper grade be given by the borough engineer for "these properties in question" and ruled that if the curbs and sidewalks are not constructed by August 15, "the borough should proceed to construct said curbs and sidewalks and bill the said property holders the cost thereof with 10 per cent added."

Order Street Work

Council agreed to furnish materials and equipment for improving a section of Monarch St. beyond the present graded section with the property owner requesting the extension to be billed for the work. It also decided that the borough will grade off "several inches" of the graded portion of Monarch St., will level it and apply an asphalt surface treatment. Council held the work would be of a temporary nature pending receipt of a proper grade for the street but also held that the treatment would prevent the present surface from "wearing in pockets as has been the case and causing considerable patching from time to time."

The street commissioner was authorized to use a grader on the first alley east of S. Queen St. from Monarch St. to the borough limits in order to cut a drainage ditch along the alley. The street commissioner was also directed to trim trees along the alley.

A problem of surface drainage difficulties in the area of Banker's Restaurant was tabled when the council learned from its street committee that "the drain tile which were causing some trouble of carrying off surface water during excessive rains had not been installed by the borough and as long as the surface water was not causing any problem for the borough, it was a matter of individual owners to adjust."

Complaints on Lights

Council was informed that if water and sewer mains are installed on Columbus Ave., several homes will be constructed. When it was also informed that sufficient pipe was on hand for the work, it authorized construction of the water main from W. King St. to W. Myrtle St. on Columbus Ave. and installation of the sewer main from W. Myrtle St. to approximately midway to W. King St.

Secretary Keefe reported that pipe and materials for the 10-inch water main to be constructed on Newark St. to the new high school have been ordered and "construction of the main will begin around the middle of August." Several fire hydrants will be required along the length of the main, he reported.

Borough Policeman Edward T. Kowalczyk listed complaints concerning poor street lighting on Lumber St. in the area of the I. D. Crouse and Son lumber yard. Council instructed the secretary to contact the Metropolitan Edison Co. to urge it to complete a previously approved plan to survey Lumber St. in relation to street lights.

Reports Presented

Council learned that it has not as yet received a deed to the former grade school building on E. King St. but "the building committee felt that regardless of whether the deed has been received, the transaction was accepted by the school district." As a result the town agreed to proceed with installing window glass that had been broken.

Treasurer John H. Flickinger reported receipts of $17,560.55 of which $17,100 comprised water and sewer rents turned over by Secretary Keefe. Expenditures approved totaled $7,246.91. Treasurer Flickinger announced the following balances as of June 30: general fund $28,468.36; water fund, $30,749.07; sewer fund, $22,410.73; parking meter fund, $17,453.41; State Highway Aid fund, $8,019.64.

Council approved purchase of two pair of police trousers, a blouse and hat, second hand, for $45.

Discuss Police Hours

A discussion was held on the hours being served by the two full-time policemen and council asked the Safety Committee to study the matter and make "recommendation for the betterment of the present hours now performed by the said policemen." Council authorized purchase and erection of four reflectorized signs stating "Signals Ahead" to be placed on the approaches to Center Square as a result of complaints from motorists that the traffic lights are "hard to see from certain spots in the approach." Council accepted an invitation from the Alpha Fire Company for

SAUER NAMED HEAD SLEUTH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Creation of a State Police Bureau of Detectives with Capt. George M. Sauer of Reading as its head was announced today by Commissioner Frank G. McCartney.

The announcement said 54 of the state police force's top crime investigators would constitute the new detective force.

Sauer, a veteran investigator with more than 31 years of state police service, is to report to Harrisburg immediately to assume command of the bureau. He has been commanding officer of Troop C at Reading since January.

Stanton Promoted

Sauer's chief executive officer will be Det. Lt. W. J. Stanton, promoted from sergeant by today's order. He has been assigned to the investigation section in state headquarters for more than 10 years.

Nine detectives were assigned to bureau headquarters in Harrisburg. Other appointees to the new bureau will work at troop level under their respective troop commanders.

In most cases, McCartney said, appointment to detective rank constitutes a promotion with an increase in salary.

NOT MUCH FIRE

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—The fire didn't amount to much—rubbish burning in the basement of Hildebrand's wallpaper store—but it certainly caused a lot of commotion.

Seven persons, including Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Hildebrand, owners of the store, were routed from sound sleep at 4 a.m.

Edward Kramer, who occupied an upstairs apartment with his wife and infant son, turned in the fire alarm. Later he was treated at a hospital for cuts caused by stepping on broken glass from the alarm box in his bare feet.

Total damage estimate by Hildebrand: About $100.

TRIBUTE TO GRACE

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Bethlehem Steel Corp. Wednesday paid tribute to former Board Chairman Eugene G. Grace by stopping operations for two minutes at the start of private funeral services.

TURKS CLASH WITH SOVIETS ALONG BORDER

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Turkish and Soviet troops clashed in a two-hour frontier fight Sunday night, Turkish government sources reported today.

No casualties were reported in the border flareup.

Reliable informants said the incident occurred about 9 p.m. near the remote Soviet border outpost of Gomahan, a village half a mile north of the frontier. The nearest Turkish town of any size is Borka, about 10 miles south of the border.

"Normal Incident"

Foreign Ministry sources called the clash a "normal frontier incident." U.S. and NATO officials in Ankara said they had received no report.

There were two versions of what took place.

Foreign Ministry sources said a Turkish border guard observed five or six Soviet soldiers he thought were crossing the frontier and ordered them to halt. When they did not, he opened fire. The Soviet soldier fired back, more Turks came up, and rifle fire continued for about two hours. Then soldiers withdrew.

Other Version

Sources in the Interior Ministry said they understood a Soviet patrol had tried to arrest a Turkish border guard, apparently believing he had strayed across the frontier. The Turk cried out, his companions rushed to the scene, and the exchange of fire ensued.

The Interior Ministry said it did not know the fate of the soldier but that further information was expected.

The last Soviet-Turkish border incident reported was in August 1959. One Turk was killed and another wounded by Soviet gunfire as they strayed about 50 yards into Soviet territory while cutting grass in the Posof district in the northeast corner of Turkey.

The Soviet Union announced in February 1959 that it had captured four American-trained Turkish spies and killed another when they tried to cross the frontier at night. The Soviet Union claimed the men were "recruits of the Turkish intelligence services trained in an Ankara suburb by American instructors."

The governor said he also planned to be on hand and "we're going to discuss how much time he (Sen. Kennedy) is going to spend in Pennsylvania."

He noted the figures involved only state police investigations, adding that the number would go much higher on the basis of statistics from urban areas.

He said "one of the major causes of delinquency in juveniles is probably delinquency in the adults around them."

It is, in addition, an attempt to reconcile Ostrander's preliminary findings in this area with conflicting findings of another investigator elsewhere. Dr. Ostrander will report on his preliminary findings at the annual American Psychology Association convention in Chicago September 2.

The psychologist collected basic data through his work with the 300 students during the spring semester and early summer. He is now analyzing the data and expects to complete the research and draft a report by late August.

There were shouts of "No, no, no" when he asked for withdrawal of his name. But Goldwater told the delegates that despite previous criticisms he now felt the platform which the convention just had adopted "deserves the support of every American—over the blueprint for socialism presented by the Democrats."

Goldwater got his name in the record books, however. Ten Louisiana delegates cast their ballots for him on a roll call in which Nevada's votes put Nixon over the 566 needed for nomination. The final tally was Nixon 1,321, Goldwater 10. Then the convention made it unanimous.

Lodge, a former U. S. senator from Massachusetts, said the Republican presidential nominee telephoned him this morning and said he "supported me as the Republican nominee for vice president."

"I was really touched by hearing it first directly from him," Lodge told a news conference.

Lodge indicated clearly he would accept if nominated.

CIVIL SERVICE URGES FILING FOR CLERK JOB

Persons who have not reached their 18th birthday may now file in the open competitive examination for clerk position in the federal government. The director, Third Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, announced today. Though no one can be appointed until he reaches his 18th birthday, everyone 16 or 17 should file and compete in this examination as the commission announces this examination only every two or three years.

No experience is necessary, the director said, and the positions filled from the registers of eligibles established from this examination pay starting salaries of $67 a week. For the individual without some specialized skill or training, eligibility in this examination offers the opportunity to enter public service and begin a career.

August 15 Deadline

Applications to take this examination will be received up to and including August 15. Any mail postmarked on or before that date will be accepted as having been filed before the closing date.

Local postmasters can advise interested parties of the nearest location to secure copies of the announcement and application forms, or applicants may write to the Director, Third Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Custom House, Philadelphia 6, Pa. In writing to the director be sure to state "I wish to apply for the examination for clerk." This will enable the commission to accept the letter, if it is postmarked on or before August 15, as the individual's intention to compete in the examination.

HARVEST OF PEACH CROP IS NOW UNDERWAY

Southern and central Pennsylvania peach growers expect to start picking early varieties this week, the State Crop Reporting Service said today in its weekly crop and weather roundup.

Peach growers have set August 1 as a target date to start harvest of Jubilee and other later varieties.

The State Agriculture Department agency also reports that corn is now growing faster than previously, but cool nights continue to slow development. Tassels and silk are showing in early southern fields but growth is short.

Daily quantities of most vegetables are increasing but it will take a week or more of sustained hot weather to attain a high level of production. Additional rainfall is needed in the Erie County area. Sweet corn and tomatoes are available from southern and central production areas. Snap beans, cabbage and beets are in good supply from all centers of production.

Tobacco growth has speeded up in recent weeks and topping has begun in earlier plantings in Lancaster and neighboring counties.

Harvest of early potatoes is starting in some fields in several southeastern and central localities.

Barley harvest is finished and wheat harvest is being finished in some southern counties. Wheat harvest has been delayed by showers and high humidity which caused the grain to swell. Spring oats are ready to be combined in the south.

Hay and pasture crops are in good condition, generally well above average for this time of year.

NEW TEARDROP SKIRT BREAKS SEASON TREND

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP)—The bosom made a comeback, along with hand-sown waistlines, in the Lanvin-Castillo fall and winter fashion collection shown this morning.

Designer Castillo's main idea is a teardrop shaped skirt which covers the knees by a 2 or 4 inches. His show includes the prettiest colors and color combinations seen in Paris so far in this dark and sober season.

The Lanvin-Castillo collection

rebels against nearly all the trends of the season, in fact, and looks handsome enough to get by with it. Castillo's "1961 woman" owes nothing to the '30s and late '20s, which have inspired nearly all the other designers including Dior's Yves Saint Laurent, who showed Wednesday.

Slight Curve

The teardrop skirt gets its shape by curving out slightly over the hips—or toward the hem in suit skirts—and drawing in to a slanted two or three inch band at the bottom. This hemline is neither gathered in enough to be harem, nor tight enough to be hobble, as the mannequins proved by their easy, unhampered walk.

Littlestown

STREET, SEWER MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON BY COUNCIL

Street and sewer problems were the principal matters before the Littlestown borough council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the office of Secretary Roger J. Keefe, 32 N. Queen St., Littlestown.

Reports showed "some difficulty" on the part of property owners on Pennsylvania and Delaware Avenues and W. Myrtle St. in obtaining grades for required construction of curbs and sidewalks. Council directed that the proper grade be given by the borough engineer for "these properties in question" and ruled that if the curbs and sidewalks are not constructed by August 15, "the borough should proceed to construct said curbs and sidewalks and bill the said property holders the cost thereof with 10 per cent added."

Order Street Work

Council agreed to furnish materials and equipment for improving a section of Monarch St. beyond the present graded section with the property owner requesting the extension to be billed for the work. It also decided that the borough will grade off "several inches" of the graded portion of Monarch St. to level it and apply an asphalt surface treatment. Council held the work would be of a temporary nature pending receipt of a proper grade for the street but also held that the treatment would prevent the present surface from "wearing in pockets as has been the case and causing considerable patching from time to time."

The street commissioner was authorized to use a grader on the first alley east of S. Queen St. from Monarch St. to the borough limits in order to cut a drainage ditch along the alley. The street commissioner was also directed to trim trees along the alley.

A problem of surface drainage difficulties in the area of Banker's Restaurant was tabled when the council learned from its street committee that "the drain tile which were causing some trouble of carrying off surface water during excessive rains had not been installed by the borough and as long as the surface water was not causing any problem for the borough, it was a matter of individual owners to adjust."

Complaints on Lights

Council was informed that if water and sewer mains are installed on Columbus Ave., several homes will be constructed. When it was also informed that sufficient pipe was on hand for the work, it authorized construction of the water main from W. King St. to W. Myrtle St. on Columbus Ave. and installation of the sewer main from W. Myrtle St. to approximately midway to W. King St.

Secretary Keefe reported that pipe and materials for the 10-inch water main to be constructed on Newark St. to the new high school have been ordered and "construction of the main will be begun around the middle of August." Several fire hydrants will be required along the length of the main, he reported.

Borough Policeman Edward T. Kowalczyk listed complaints concerning poor street lighting on Lumber St. in the area of the I. D. Crouse and Son lumber yard. Council instructed the secretary to contact the Metropolitan Edison Co. to urge it to complete a previously approved plan to survey Lumber St. in relation to street lights.

Reports Presented

Council learned that it has not as yet received a deed to the former grade school building on E. King St. but "the building committee felt that regardless of whether the deed has been received, the transaction was accepted by the school district." As a result the town agreed to proceed with installing window glass that had been broken.

Treasurer John H. Flickinger reported receipts of $17,560.55 of which $17,100 comprised water and sewer rents turned over by Secretary Keefe. Expenditures approved totaled $7,246.91. Treasurer Flickinger announced the following balances as of June 30: general fund $28,468.36; water fund, $30,749.07; sewer fund, $22,410.73; parking meter fund, $17,453.41; State Highway Aid fund, $8,019.64.

Council approved purchase of two pair of police trousers, a blouse and hat, second hand, for $45.

Discuss Police Hours

A discussion was held on the hours being served by the two full-time policemen and council asked the Safety Committee to study the matter and make "recommendation for the betterment of the present hours now performed by the said policemen."

Council authorized purchase and erection of four reflectorized signs stating "Signals Ahead" to be placed on the approaches to Center Square as a result of complaints from motorists that the traffic lights are "hard to see from certain spots in the approach."

Council accepted an invitation from the Alpha Fire Company for

SAUER NAMED HEAD SLEUTH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Creation of a State Police Bureau of Detectives with Capt. George M. Sauer of Reading as its head was announced today by Commissioner Frank G. McCartney.

The announcement said 54 of the state police force's top crime investigators would constitute the new detective force.

Sauer, a veteran investigator with more than 31 years of state police service, is to report to Harrisburg immediately to assume command of the bureau. He has been commanding officer of Troop C at Reading since January.

Stanton Promoted

Sauer's chief executive officer will be Det. Lt. W. J. Stanton, promoted from sergeant by today's order. He has been assigned to the investigation section in state headquarters for more than 10 years.

Nine detectives were assigned to bureau headquarters in Harrisburg. Other appointees to the new bureau will work at troop level under their respective troop commanders.

In most cases, McCartney said, appointment to detective rank constitutes a promotion with an increase in salary.

NOT MUCH FIRE

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—The fire didn't amount to much—rubbish burning in the basement of Hildebrand's wallpaper store—but it certainly caused a lot of commotion.

Seven persons, including Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Hildebrand, owners of the store, were routed from sound sleep at 4 a.m.

Edward Kramer, who occupied an upstairs apartment with his wife and infant son, turned in the fire alarm. Later he was treated at a hospital for cuts caused by stepping on broken glass from the alarm box in his bare feet.

Total damage estimate by Hildebrand: About $100.

away. Goldwater marched firmly to the rostrum to decline the honor.

There were shouts of "No, no, no" when he asked for withdrawal of his name. But Goldwater told the delegates that despite previous criticisms he now felt the platform which the convention just had adopted "deserves the support of every American—over the blueprint for socialism presented by the Democrats."

Goldwater got his name in the record books, however. Ten Louisiana delegates cast their ballots for him on a roll call in which Nevada's votes put Nixon over the 666 needed for nomination. The final tally was Nixon 1,321, Goldwater 10. Then the convention made it unanimous.

LODGE ELATED TO BE CHOSEN GOP NOMINEE

NEW YORK (AP)—United Nations Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said today he was "overwhelmed" at being selected to be Vice President Richard M. Nixon's running mate on the Republican presidential ticket.

Lodge, a former U. S. senator from Massachusetts, said the Republican presidential nominee telephoned him this morning and said he "supported me as the Republican nominee for vice president."

"I was really touched by hearing it first directly from him," Lodge told a news conference. Lodge indicated clearly he would accept if nominated.

"Very Grateful"

In his conversation with Nixon, Lodge said "I thanked him very effusively. I'm very grateful that the people there felt I was fit."

He said that if nominated he expected to resign "some time in August" from his post as U. S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Lodge said he was ready to campaign anywhere in the country and that he was "very optimistic about the outcome."

"It will be a fighting campaign," he said. Surrounded by newsmen and television cameras in the Palm Room of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, the handsome, slightly graying Lodge was composed and genial as he handled a barrage of questions.

CIVIL SERVICE URGES FILING FOR CLERK JOB

Persons who have not reached their 18th birthday may now file in the open competitive examination for clerk position in the federal government, the director, Third Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, announced today. Though no one can be appointed until he reaches his 18th birthday, everyone 16 or 17 should file and compete in this examination as the commission announces this examination only every two or three years.

No experience is necessary, the director said, and the positions filled from the registers of eligibles established from this examination pay starting salaries of $67 a week. For the individual without some specialized skill or training, eligibility in this examination offers the opportunity to enter public service and begin a career.

August 15 Deadline

Applications to take this examination will be received up to and including August 15. Any mail postmarked on or before that date will be accepted as having been filed before the closing date.

Local postmasters can advise interested parties of the nearest location to secure copies of the announcement and application forms, or applicants may write to the Director, Third Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Custom House, Philadelphia 6, Pa. In writing to the director be sure to state "I wish to apply for the examination for clerk." This will enable the commission to accept the letter, if it is postmarked on or before August 15, as the individual's intention to compete in the examination.

Safety Head Raps Tractor Operators

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state's traffic safety commissioner said today "there is absolutely no justification whatsoever" for farmers to allow youngsters to operate tractors on or off the road.

"A youth eight or nine years of age lacks the maturity necessary for safe and prudent operation of a power-driven vehicle, such as a farm tractor," said O. D. Shipley. His statement was issued in connection with the observance of Farm Safety Week.

HARVEST OF PEACH CROP IS NOW UNDERWAY

Southern and central Pennsylvania peach growers expect to start picking early varieties this week, the State Crop Reporting Service said today in its weekly crop and weather roundup.

Peach growers have set August 1 as a target date to start harvest of Jubilee and other later varieties.

The State Agriculture Department agency also reports that corn is now growing faster than previously, but cool nights continue to slow development. Tassels and silk are showing in early southern fields but growth is short.

Daily quantities of most vegetables are increasing but it will take a week or more of sustained hot weather to attain a high level of production. Additional rainfall is needed in the Erie County area. Sweet corn and tomatoes are available from southern and central production areas. Snap beans, cabbage and beets are in good supply from all centers of production.

Tobacco growth has speeded up in recent weeks and topping has begun in earlier plantings in Lancaster and neighboring counties. Harvest of early potatoes is starting in some fields in several southeastern and central localities.

Barley harvest is finished and wheat harvest is being finished in some southern counties. Wheat harvest has been delayed by showers and high humidity which caused the grain to swell. Spring oats are ready to be combined in the south.

Hay and pasture crops are in good condition, generally well above average for this time of year.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY YEARS AGO
Motor Deaths Up 14 Per Cent:
Pennsylvania counted a death toll of at least 15 today from weekend accidents as thousands thronged to beach and country resorts to escape the stifling heat. As usual automobiles were responsible for most of the deaths.

Dollar Days To Be Observed 2 Days This Week: Gettysburg will be the mecca for shoppers from every section of Adams county, Friday and Saturday, August 2 and 3, when the Gettysburg merchants will hold their semi-annual summer Community Dollar Days.

2 County Units Given Prizes:
A large crowd witnessed the parade on Saturday afternoon at Littlestown which was the climax to the carnival that the Alpha Fire company held on Thursday Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Vote Units May Register Men For Training: Pennsylvania's election machinery may be working overtime this fall if the military conscription bill now before congress is approved. Col. William H. Zierdt said today. Zierdt, executive assistant to the adjutant general of the Pennsylvania National Guard, pointed out the tentative program calls for a registration of all men between the ages of 21 and 31 years, preparatory to a selective draft.

Three Weeks Drill For Guardsmen: The vanguard of one of the nation's greatest mass troop movements in peacetime history begins this week when practically every man of Pennsylvania's 14,000 National Guardsmen boards trains and trucks for New York State.

Showers Bring Brief Respite From Heat Wave; Mercury Goes To 92 Today: Humidity Is Excessive. A rainfall that amounted to 1.08 inches broke the grip of the heat wave in Gettysburg for a short time Sunday afternoon and evening, but the sun's rays soon boosted the temperature over the 90 mark again today as "King Heat" returned to the throne.

F.D.R. Inspects Norfolk Navy Yard: President Roosevelt began to check-up on sea, land and air defenses at the mouth of Chesapeake bay today with an inspection of the Norfolk navy yard, where the new battleship Alabama is being built.

Earl Harbaugh Fatally Injured In Auto Crash: Word has been received of the death of Earl O. Harbaugh, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Harbaugh, Gettysburg R. 1, in California on Saturday. Harbaugh died as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

The deceased was well known in Gettysburg and vicinity. He graduated from Gettysburg High school in 1931 where he starred as an all-around athlete. Later he attended Gettysburg academy, Oklahoma City university and Roanoke college.

Waynesburg Ready For 64th Rainy July 29 In Last Sixty-Six Years: This southwestern Pennsylvania community today welcomed its traditional rainy day with more than usual enthusiasm in the hope that it would bring relief from the heat wave. Only three times in 66 years has it failed to rain here on July 29. A forecast of thunder showers heightened prospects of the strange tradition holding again.

Today's Talk

"I AM SO LITTLE"
I once received a letter that read like this: "I would like to do so many big things, but I am so little. I want to help, but I don't know the way."

All things are big or little but relatively. The Earth is very big—but there are thousands of other bodies like the Earth that are so much bigger. The sun is a giant beside the Earth. It isn't the bigness of things or of people that counts, but the way in which the best use of one's ability fits into the scheme of the world. As to helping, that is a task that may be done at any time and in any place. There is so much to do. That's about the only discouraging thing about a brief life in the body—there is so little time in which to do so many things. But if we do all that we are able in the time allotted to us, there need be nothing to worry us. You can be quite big—right where you are!

The piccolo is the smallest instrument played in a band—but just let its player get off on the wrong key once and note the expression on the bandmaster's face. It's the way we play the game that counts!

Do many little things and you will be growing into big things. That is the way the biggest things come about. Infinite pains, great patience, long and difficult work—these are the roads over which genius walks.

It is quite wonderful the way big things open up to one who keeps clearing his way as he goes—by doing the little things well. You are so little! Well, size isn't the thing. It's what you do with ALL that you are.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "My Cup Runneth Over."

Just Folks

WHAT HE COULD DO
He never rose to glory or to fame,
His name was never printed in the press;
He never made the hit that won the game,
But patiently he zipped his partner's dress.

The job he held another man could fill;
He never sought to climb the mountain steep;
You wouldn't call him wonderful, but still
He never failed to sing his babe to sleep.

He merely plodded on his simple way,
Ambition never seemed to stir his bones;
But never have his children heard him say
He didn't have the price of ice cream cones.

FAIRFIELD LITTLE LEAGUE

Three errors and a hit in the bottom of the sixth inning gave the Braves a thrilling 13-12 win over the first place Cardinals Wednesday evening in Fairfield Little League action.

The Cardinals held a 12-7 lead going into the final frame, but fell apart as the Braves tallied their six big-game winning runs. Mike Reindollar paced the winners' attack with three for three at the plate. The young player also went the distance on the mound for the win.

Mike Wyatt and Barry Fitz along with the help of Terry Kessel set a blistering pace for the losers. Both Wyatt and Fitz uncorked home runs in the first frame with mates aboard. Kessel lashed out a triple and two doubles to lead the Cardinals. R. Kessel took care of the pitching for the losers.

CREAM OF PA. GRID TALENT SEEK 3RD WIN

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania football fans claim, and many college coaches agree, that the state produces more than its share of top football talent.

The number of Pennsylvanians on out-of-state college football rosters strongly supports the claim, but there is another indicator.

It's the annual game between some of the best high school players Pennsylvania can produce and a select group of scholastic stars from throughout the nation.

All H.S. Graduates
The game was spurred by Al Clark, sports editor of the Harrisburg Patriot-News. A group of sportswriters around the state helps select the Pennsylvania team, known as the Big 33.

The national team is picked by the Oklahoma City Sports Club. All players on both teams are 1960 high school graduates. Proceeds of the game, in Hershey Stadium, go to charity.

Pennsylvania's reputation in the first two games went unblemished, thanks to traditionally rugged lines which helped turn in 6-0 and 18-0 victories.

Face Stiffest Test
But the Pennsylvanians face perhaps their stiffest test in the third annual game here Saturday night. The Nationals, coached by Dr. Sherman, former George Washington University member, feature fast backs and a 211-pound average line that matches the Pennsylvanians for size.

In addition, Sherman can call on two fine quarterbacks—Jay Wilkinson, son of Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson, and Jerry Roach of Dallas, Tex.

Variety Of Plays
Sherman hasn't decided whether to start Wilkinson or Roach, but his other backs probably will be Bill Harper, Woodward, Okla., and Eddie Versprille, Norfolk, Va., at the halves and Jerry Rogers, Corpus Christi, Tex., at fullback.

The National starting line tentatively includes ends Ken Hodge, Dallas, and Tom Paton, Wilmington, Del.; tackles Mike Daley, Lewiston, Minn., and Joe Faustano, Rochester, N.Y.; guards Marvin Harris of Coos Bay, Ore., and Dave Adams, Prophetstown, Ill., and center Randall Edwards, Orange, Va.

Carl Snavely, former North Carolina coach who is directing the Pennsylvanians the second straight year, has installed the single wing with some T-formation plays for variation.

Starting Crew
One of his outstanding players is fullback Rick Leeson, a 192-pounder from Scott Twp., near Pittsburgh. National scouts have called him one of the best players they've seen.

Besides Leeson, Snavely tentatively plans to start Jim Kelly, Clairton, and Lou Fogle, Franklin, at ends; Rolind Mudd, Bradock, and Grey Berrier, Harrisburg, tackles; Lou Shimoksi, Bath, and Paul Fedor, Lancaster, guards; Pete Geimarc, Charlestown, center; Gary Hogan, Charlestown, tailback; Ron Alexander, New Castle, blocking back, and Charlie Weaver, Easton, wingback.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The National Safety Council is assisting in establishing a safety program for state employees.

HERSHEY SITE FOR ANNUAL PPL MATCH

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Accuracy rather than the long ball will determine the winner of the 25th annual Pennsylvania public links golf tournament opening today.

The Hershey Park course, scene of the three-day 72-hole event, is one of the finest layouts in the state, public or private.

Although only 6,250 yards long, trees menacingly line its narrow fairways. Water is a hazard on seven holes. A fast-running creek meanders snake-like straight up the middle of the 13th fairway and must be crossed twice on the rugged 18th.

126 Players
The field of 126 players will find the par 71 tough to beat. The 1959 winner, Air Force Maj. Waino Thompson, is now stationed in New Mexico, leaving the title undefended.

The field will be trimmed to the low 45 scores and ties after 19-hole rounds today and Friday. The survivors will play 36 holes Saturday.

Paul Garrison of Hershey Park, winner in 1954, 1957 and 1958, head the field. His brother, Art, the 1956 title, is also entered, along with Gordon Goodson of Harrisburg, the 1955 champ.

Big League

The Towne Restaurant teed off on three Goldsmith pitchers to wallop the Roofers 12-5 in a Big League contest Wednesday evening at the Recreation Park.

After being shut out on a no-hitter by the same team the night before, the Towne came back strong Wednesday to tally a run in every inning and register 12 hits including a home run by Larry Guise and doubles by Mort, Singley and Dennis Little. Manager George Grawe combined the hurling between Reese and Runk, who turned in a fine performance. Runk, home on furlough, gave up two hits in four and two-thirds innings with Reese allowing the remaining three Goldsmith safeties.

Larry Guise was the batting star as he went three for three with Little, Singley, Mort and Reese each collecting two for the winners. Earl Little paced the losers with a pair of safeties.

JORDAN SPARS WITH MOGULS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ex-welterweight champion Don Jordan says his next fight is not a rematch with new champ Benny (Kid) Paret, but a scrap with the California Athletic Commission.

The commission just about killed Jordan's hopes to meet Cuba's Paret when they refused to grant Jordan a boxing license. The terse announcement Wednesday accused Jordan of "actions detrimental to the best interests of boxing."

Commission Secretary Clayton Frye declined to elaborate. But he added: "The action seems very final."

It's no secret the commission has taken a dim view of Jordan's choice of friends, including ex-gambler Mickey Cohen. However, Jordan testified at a recent commission hearing that his onetime association with Cohen has broken off.

The Jordan camp says they'll appeal the commission's ruling. Meanwhile, manager Kirk Kerkorian said he'll try and get a court order to force Paret to meet Jordan in a return bout.

Lincoln Speedway, where stock car action is getting faster and livelier each week, has another "open" card programmed for the Sportsman-Modified leadouts Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Two 10-lap heats and a 25-lap feature are lined up for Roger Sowers, Bobby Hersh and Co. Their battle for the checkered flag should be a good one, but it will take some doing to make Lincoln fans forget the thrilling windup to last week's main encounter. Separated by mere inches, Hersh and Pee Wee Pobletts roared down the stretch side by side. It was Hersh the winner.

The Novice Division drivers will be on hand too, competing in a couple of heats and a 25-lap feature.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Motor Deaths Up 14 Per Cent

Pennsylvania counted a death toll of at least 15 today from weekend accidents as thousands thronged to beach and country resorts to escape the stifling heat. As usual automobiles were responsible for most of the deaths.

Dollar Days To Be Observed 2

A large crowd witnessed the parade on Saturday afternoon at Littletown which was the climax to the carnival that the Alpha Fire company held on Thursday Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Vote Units May Register Men

For Training: Pennsylvania's election machinery may be working overtime this fall if the military conscription bill now before congress is approved. Col.
William H. Zierdt said today.
Zierdt, executive assistant to the adjutant general of the Pennsylvania National Guard, pointed out the tentative program called for a registration of all men between the ages of 21 and 31 years, preparatory to a selective draft.

Three Weeks Drill For Guards-

men: The vanguard of one of the nation's greatest mass troop movements in peacetime history begins this week when practically every man of Pennsylvania's 14,000 National Guardsmen boards trains and trucks for New York State.

Showers Bring Brief Respite

From Heat Wave; Mercury Goes To 92 Today; Humidity Is Excessive. A rainfall that amounted to 1.00 inches broke the grip of the heat wave in Gettysburg for a short time Sunday afternoon and evening, but the sun's rays soon boosted the temperature over the 90 mark again today as "King
Heat" returned to the throne.

Years: This southwestern Pennsylvania community today welcomed its traditional rainy day with more than usual enthusiasm in the hope that it would bring relief from the heat wave. Only three times in 66 years has it failed to rain here on July 29. A tradition holding again.

Today's Talk

"I AM SO LITTLE"

I once received a letter that read like this: "I would like to do so many big things, but I am so little. I want to help, but I don't know the way."All things are big or little but relatively. The Earth is very big—but there are thousands of other bodies like the Earth that are so much bigger. The sun is a giant beside the Earth.It isn't the bigness of things or of people that counts, but the way in which the best use of one's ability fits into the scheme of the world. As to helping, that is a task that may be done at any time and in any place.There is so much to do. That's about the only discouraging thing about a brief life in the body—there is so little time in which to do so many things. But if we do all that we are able in the time allotted to us, there need be nothing to worry us. You can be quite big—right where you are!The piccolo is the smallest instrument played in a band—but just let its player get off on the wrong key once and note the expression on the bandmaster's face. It's the way we play the game that counts!Do many little things and you will be growing into big things.
That is the way the biggest things come about. Infinite pains, great patience, long and difficult work—these are the roads over which genius walks.It is quite wonderful the way big things open up to one who keeps clearing his way as he goes—by doing the little things well. You are so little? Well, size isn't the thing. It's what you do with ALL that you are.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "My Cup Runneth Over."Protected, 1960, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

WHAT HE COULD DO
He never rose to glory or to fame,
His name was never printed in the press;He never made the hit that won the game,
But patiently he zipped his partner's dress.The job he held another man could fill;
He never sought to climb the mountain steep;You wouldn't call him wonderful, but still
He never failed to sing his babe to sleep.He merely plodded on his simple way,
Ambition never seemed to stir
his bones;
But never have his children heard him sayHe didn't have the price of ice cream cones.

GRID TALENT
SEEK 3RD WINHERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania football fans claim, and many college coaches agree, that the state produces more than its share of top football talent.The number of Pennsylvanians on out-of-state college football rosters strongly supports the claim, but there is another indicator.It's the annual game between some of the best high school players Pennsylvania can produce and a select group of scholastic stars from throughout the nation.

All H.S. Graduates

The game was spurred by Al
Clark, sports editor of the Harrisburg Patriot-News. A group of sportswriters around the state helps select the Pennsylvania team, known as the Big 33.The national team is picked by the Oklahoma City Sports Club.
All players on both teams are 1960 high school graduates.Proceeds of the game, in Hershey Stadium, go to charity.
Pennsylvania's reputation in the first two games went unblemished, thanks to traditionally rugged lines which helped turn in 6-0 and 18-0 victories.

Face Stiffest Test

But the Pennsylvanians face perhaps their stiffest test in the third annual game here Saturday night.
The Nationals, coached by Bo
Sherman, former George Washington University member, feature fast backs and a 211-pound average line that matches the Pennsylvanians for size.In addition, Sherman can call on two fine quarterbacks — Jay Wilkinson, son of Oklahoma
Coach Bud Wilkinson, and Jerry Rhode of Dallas, Tex.

Variety Of Plays

Sherman hasn't decided whether to start Wilkinson or Rhode, but his other backs probably will be Bill Harper, Woodward, Okla., and Eddie Versipelle, Norfolk, Va., at the halves and Jerry Rogers, Corpus Christi, Tex., at fullback.The National starting line tentatively includes ends Ken Hodge, Dallas, and Tom Paton, Wilmington, Del.; tackles Mike Daley, Levittown, Minn., and Joe Faus-

Pirates Take 3rd Straight From Cards As Sanford And Giants Shut Out Milwaukee

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jack Sanford today must know how Freddy Fitzsimmons, another Giant pitcher, felt 25 years ago.

In 1935, Fitzsimmons lost eight out of 12 decisions. In his four successful outings, he had to pitch a shutout.

Sanford won his ninth game for San Francisco Wednesday, a 5-0 triumph over Milwaukee. He has lost eight. Six of his victories have been shutouts.

Bucs' Lead Grows
Big Jack's four-hitter combined with Pittsburgh's 7-3 triumph over St. Louis increased the Pirates' first-place lead over the Braves to 1 1/2 games.

Los Angeles' third-place Dodgers blanked the Cincinnati Reds 2-0 behind Don Drysdale's four-hitter and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Chicago Cubs 7-5.

Orlando Cepeda, with three hits, and Jim Marshall, with one, drove in two runs apiece to lead the Giants' eight-hit attack on loser Lew Burdette and Don McMahon.

3rd Straight From Cards
Drysdale duplicated Sanford's four-hit performance for Los Angeles which marked his second straight shutout and fifth consecutive victory. The tall right-hander struck out six and didn't walk a batter.

The Pirates, winning their third straight from St. Louis, snapped a 3-3 tie in the seventh. Singles by Joe Christopher, Dick Groat, Gino Cimoli and Hal Smith highlighted the three-run rally. Fred Green, who took over after Joe Gibbon walked the first two batters in the sixth, gave up only one hit and gained credit for his fifth victory. Ray Sadecki was the loser.

Pinch hitter Bobby Del Greco's leadoff homer broke a 3-3 tie and launched a four-run rally in the fifth for the Phillies which handed the tailend Cubs their sixth straight defeat.

Major League Stars
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Batting, Bob Allison, Senators—The big outfielder singled with one out in the 15th inning to score Pete Whisenand with the run that gave the Senators a 5-4 victory over the Tigers.

Pitching, Jack Sanford, Giants—The big right-hander permitted only four hits, blanking the Braves 5-0 for his sixth shutout of the season.

EMMITSBURG LITTLE LEAGUE
The Cardinals moved into a tie for first place of the Emmitsburg Little League by walloping the Red Sox 22-14, Wednesday evening as the title race nears the finish line.

The Cardinals pounded out 14 hits to give hurler Sherwin plenty of support. Hahn started for the

TORGESON'S PINCH HIT FOR CHISOX WINS

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Probably the most unsung and the most successful big leaguer in his specialty is Earl Torgeson, 38, pinch hitter extraordinary of the American League-leading Chicago White Sox.

The third-string first baseman cracked the key hit — as a pinch hitter — in a five-run seventh inning that set up a 10-4 Chicago victory over Boston Wednesday widening the White Sox' first-place lead over the rained-out New York Yankees to 1 1/2 games.

The bespectacled southpaw swinger has been called upon as an emergency batter this season 36 times and in 22 of these he has reached base — 10 hits and 12 walks. That's an amazing .611 on-base average.

Washington In 15 Innings
In the only other game played in the AL, Washington outlasted Detroit 5-4 in 15 innings. Rain forced the postponement of the scheduled doubleheader between Cleveland and the Yankees in New York and Kansas City at Baltimore.

The Detroit-Washington night struggle lasted four hours and 48 minutes—only 10 minutes short of the longest game in American League history. Bob Allison singled home Pete Whisenand with the winning run in the 15th. The victory gave Washington undisputed possession of fifth place.

Eastern League
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Know why the Williamsport Grays are 4 1/2 games out front today in the Eastern League race? They've won 14 of 20 games against No. 1 rival Springfield.

They beat the Giants again Wednesday night, 9-4, with a six-run rally in the sixth inning.

Lancaster moved into a second place tie with Springfield by defeating Binghamton 3-2 and Reading beat Allentown 9-3.

Jim Miller's two-run homer in the second and Tim Talton's solo home run in the third got Springfield off to a 3-0 lead but the Grays came roaring back in the losers and needed help from R. Baker.

DEJOHN WINS IN WALES TILT; RIOT FOLLOWS

PORTHCAWL, Wales (AP)—Mike DeJohn of Syracuse, N.Y., was nursing only a slight cut over his nose today as a souvenir of his bout with European heavyweight champion Dick Richardson and an ensuing riot during which the fans pelted the ring with a variety of missiles.

The explosion came after referee Eugene Henderson disqualified the Welshman in the eighth round of a scheduled 10-round fight for butting. The crowd, which had sat in a drenching rain in the outdoor arena, promptly went into action, hurling bottles, chairs, newspapers and umbrellas in a wild demonstration.

DeJohn floored Richardson three times in the first round, and again in the sixth, but on the whole it was a butting, wrestling exhibition which aroused the ire of the spectators.

The American punished Richardson severely with jabs and hooks. The referee had warned both men about butting at the start of the seventh, and stopped the farce when Richardson persisted in such tactics in the next round.

sixth, taking advantage of two errors by third baseman Ed Herstek. Gordy Figard singled across the clincher off loser Jim Duffalo (7-4). Jerry Kettle (5-1) got the victory.

FAIRFIELD PONY LEAGUE

Cashtown clinched at least a tie for the league title as they defeated second place Fairfield 8-7 Wednesday evening at Cashtown in a Fairfield Lions League contest.

A run in the fifth on walks to L. Baumgardner, D. Baumgardner and Floyd Flohr and single by Tom Duane was the margin of victory.

Cashtown jumped to a 4-0 lead after three frames, but Fairfield came back strong with seven big runs in the top of the fourth. The loser's seven tallies came on one hit, a single by A. Adelsberger. Errors and seven walks accounted for most of the runs.

B. Ketterman blasted a triple and Lloyd Flohr uncorked a double to register the only extra base hits for the winners. Tom Duane and Lloyd Flohr combined the pitching for Cashtown with R. Adelsberger going the distance for Fairfield.

Others have called them "cheats with legs." Head Coach Larry Snyder of the Olympic team said the description is apt, "if you add the word 'courage'."

Max Truex of Warsaw, Ind., is the littlest of the lot and is America's No. 1 man in the biggest event.

128 Pounds
Truex is 5 feet 5 inches tall, and his weight of 128 pounds makes him less than half the height of the team's bulkiest man, discus thrower Rink Bakka of Palo Alto, Calif. Rink weighs 267 pounds and stands 6-5.

Jim Beatty of Charlotte, N.C., top man in the 5,000 meters (and a sub four-minute miler on the side), stands 5-8 and weighs 128. Heading the steeplechase crew is George Young of Silver City, N.M., 148-pounder who admits his official listing of 5-foot-9 is a trifle high.

The biggest distance man who has qualified for a trip to Rome is Phil Coleman of Champaign, Ill., a 5-10, 155-pound steeplechaser. Deacon Jones of Iowa City, Iowa, and Bill Dellinger of Springfield, Ore., both measure in at 5-9.

The crowd at Saturday's practice meet will see two events featuring the small men who run big. The steeplechasers will run a 3,000-meter flat race — without hurdles or water jumps — so the coaches can check their condition. All 5,000 and 10,000 meter men will compete in a 5,000-meter race.

Fight Results
Montreal — Bob Cleroux, 207, Montreal, knocked out Roy Harris, 198 1/2, Cut and Shoot, Tex., 5.

Portchawl, Wales — Mike DeJohn, 210 1/2, Syracuse, N. Y., declared winner over Dick Richardson, 204, Wales. Richardson disqualified in eighth round for butting.

Realistic Nixon Cuts Tie With Ike As Party Leader, Pledges Intense Campaign

Editor's Note: In the following story, Vice President Richard M. Nixon gives his own preview of the presidential campaign and some glimpses of what his administration may be like if he wins. Ernest B. Vaccaro of The Associated Press Senate staff got the vice president's consent to a leisurely interview before the convention, provided the story would be used only after a Nixon nomination.

Of one thing he is sure — he would not have been available for the vice presidency if the presidential nomination had gone to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who decided against opposing Nixon in the presidential preference primaries.

"I think that eight years in the vice presidency is long enough and it is a good rule to change," Nixon said.

Is Realistic

Whether he could have defeated Rockefeller in a primary fight, Nixon didn't profess to know. But he endorsed the primary system Kennedy used so effectively.

Nixon spoke realistically of the Democrats' nationwide advantage in voting registration and of the geographical appeal of their ticket, matching New-Englander Kennedy with Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

"I'm going to campaign in the South as extensively as time will permit," he added. "All-in-all, I intend to visit more states than either presidential candidate covered in 1952 or 1956."

Did he think the Kennedy-Johnson ticket is the strongest the Democrats could have nominated?

Respects Kennedy

"They thought so," Nixon said, "and I have great respect for Sen. Kennedy's political judgment."

Nixon thinks he is stronger in the Midwest, Kennedy stronger in New England.

"But the whole country will be a battleground," Nixon added.

IKE RELAXES IN COLORADO

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower relaxed today in this Colorado capital where eight years ago he was planning the campaign which took him to the White House.

In contrast, today he has before him a decision on whether to yield to the clamor of thousands of youngsters and attend the annual Boy Scout Jamboree at Colorado Springs, Colo., 60 miles south of Denver.

The job of campaign planning to keep the White House in Republican hands the next four years now is the task of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Eisenhower's choice to succeed him. The GOP presidential nomination went to Nixon, as expected, at the party's Chicago convention Wednesday night.

Sends Message To Nixon

The President watched the convention proceedings on television. He later sent a congratulatory message to Nixon.

Eisenhower, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Wednesday afternoon from Chicago where the town and the convention gave him a roaring reception.

The President and his wife came to Denver to visit the First Lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, who has been seriously ill for many months. They plan to stay on until Friday, or Saturday morning and then fly back to Newport, R. I., to resume their vacation.

Parties Man

Nixon, the intense party man, insisted he wouldn't hesitate to pick a Democrat for a key Defense or State Department post. During the interview, Nixon was calm and relaxed. He was solemn as he spoke of the burdens of the presidency and of his hopes.

"I have never said that I am the man for the presidency," he said, earnestly. "The election will determine that. That is the way it works out under our system of government. I am going to present my case to the people to as many of them as I can reach."

Few Mistakes

NIXON READIES FIGHTING TALK FOR DELEGATES

By JOE HALL
CHICAGO (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, the duly chosen Republican presidential nominee and at last his own man, prepared today to complete his job of taking over the party reins firmly for the historic campaign he believes lies ahead.

The vice president planned to chart the party's course for the next few months in a hard-hitting acceptance speech to the GOP National Convention tonight.

He said it would tip his hand on some details of the campaign he plans to put on against Democrat John F. Kennedy. He has said repeatedly this week his White House fight will be one of the most intense ever waged.

Speaks Mind
Nixon now obviously felt able for the first time in 7½ years to speak his own piece on issues as well as campaign strategy—something he had generally avoided as vice president.

He won that right in gaining the convention nomination Wednesday night with only the barest token opposition, a landslide in comparison to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's narrow triumph over Sen. Robert A. Taft in 1952.

Eisenhower made it quite clear he accepted this viewpoint in a telegram he sent Nixon from Denver.

Ike Agrees
"I am delighted that you are at last free to speak freely and frankly in expressing your views on the present and future of our great country," said the President.

"To your hands I pray that I shall pass the responsibility of the office of the presidency and will be glad to do so."

Nixon, who spent his first two days in Chicago ironing out thorny platform disputes, settled his other problem early today by announcing Henry Cabot Lodge as his choice for a running mate.

Lodge Perfect
Lodge fits perfectly into the strategy of placing major campaign emphasis on foreign affairs which Nixon is expected to follow.

As U.S. ambassador to the United Nations for the last 7½ years, Lodge has become a familiar figure on television counter-attacking the stream of Soviet charges leveled against this country.

Republican orators at the convention have borne down heavily on the theme that Kennedy would have sent regrets to the Soviets over the U2 spy plane incident.

Some Unpopularity
The Nixon camp decided to overlook Lodge's lack of popularity with some regular GOP factions, and the feeling of some Republicans that the ambassador would add little to party hopes in Kennedy's New England stronghold. Lodge lost his Senate seat to Kennedy in 1952.

Nixon announced his choice of a running mate in the early morning hours after a 2½-hour session with 35 party leaders at his headquarters hotel.

He allowed himself only a few hours sleep before setting out this morning to complete the round of meetings with state delegations which have occupied much of his time the past two days.

BLAME YOUTH IN FATALITY

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Joseph W. Zielke, 18, of Philadelphia, faces action by a Franklin County grand jury on an involuntary manslaughter charge in a Pennsylvania Turnpike accident which claimed three lives.

A coroner's jury Wednesday night found him responsible for the July 19 accident near the Willow Hill Interchange.

Witnesses testified that Zielke's car appeared to be exceeding the speed limit when it shot across the median strip into the path of a car occupied by a serviceman and his family.

Killed were Sgt. Charles R. Grozan, 35, Benton City, Wash., his German-born wife, Franziska, 33, and her brother, George Nagler, 24, of Frankfort, Germany.

The couple's children, Patricia, 6, and Pamela, 5, are still patients at Chambersburg Hospital.

Lodge Record With Soviets Well Known

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, chosen by Vice President Nixon for his running mate on the Republican ticket, deals firmly with the Soviets in both negotiations and debate.

He has shown that in 7½ years as the U.S. permanent representative to the United Nations.

By appointment from the President, Ambassador Lodge was Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's official guide on the latter's tour of the United States last September. Lodge himself toured the Soviet Union for two weeks in January and February.

In the U.N. General Assembly last year, he negotiated agreements with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov that produced a unanimous resolution on disarmament and got the Soviets to end their boycott of the U.N. Outer Space Committee.

He was involved in negotiations in 1955 to get 16 new members into the U.N. and in 1956 to bring about a cease-fire in the Israeli and British-French attacks on Egypt and to follow it up by putting a U.N. Emergency Force into that country.

He is best known to millions of Americans as the man they see on television, retorting vigorously to the Soviets at the horseshoe table of the U.N. Security Council.

Emphatic Manner
He shows up well there. He is a broad-shouldered, 58-year-old six-footer with a handsome face, a deep suntan, bushy gray hair and an emphatic manner.

He can match Soviet spokesmen word for word in cold war talks. Sometimes he throws in lively colloquialisms like "hornswoggle" and "cock-and-bull story."

But he delivers his blunt speeches in an accent cultivated at Middlesex and Harvard.

He is grandson and namesake of the Henry Cabot Lodge who voted in the Senate to keep the United States out of the League of Nations. He was born July 5, 1902, in Nahant, Mass. He married Emily Sears of Beverly, Mass., July 1, 1926. They have two sons, George Cabot Lodge, assistant secretary of labor in charge of public information, and Henry Sears Lodge, employee of an engineering firm near Boston. They have seven grandchildren.

HELSENKI, Finland (AP) — A Soviet scientist attending a geophysics and geodetics congress in Helsinki asked Monday for political asylum in Finland. Today he changed his mind and asked to be sent home to the Soviet Union. The name of the scientist was not disclosed. Police turned him over to the Soviet Embassy.

MRS. FLORA LEISTER
TANEYTOWN — Mrs. Clarence Wood, Pattishall Northants, England, arrived in New York by plane on Wednesday. She is to visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis, Ruggles Rd. Mrs. Wood is head mistress of the Pattishall School. She will visit her sister in Toronto, Canada, before returning home.

He said he had told Stahl in January that his work and conduct would have to improve or he (Reitz) would have to take disciplinary action.

Stahl was fired June 30. He had previously been suspended for 30 days by Reitz.

Reitz testified that Stahl played cards and fished while on duty and falsified attendance records on days when he was not present at work.

"I feel he is untrustworthy on the basis of his falsifying of attendance records and by authorizing payments to contractors for work that was not done according to specifications," Reitz added.

Reitz detailed several instances where Stahl allegedly failed to follow established procedure in supervising construction work on several road projects.

Stahl denied being responsible for any overpayments to contractors.

He admitted playing cards on several occasions during working hours.

But, he added, "Never did I charge any of the hours spent playing cards or fishing against the department. It was charged against overtime leaves—that's like vacation."

Commissioner John A. M. McCarthy of Philadelphia asked Stahl if he did not understand that it was department policy to spend time catching up on project book work on days when bad weather prevented actual road work.

Stahl admitted an understanding of the department policy and added, "but we never played cards more than a couple of hours."

TWO DIE IN CAR CRASH, 5 HURT

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Two autos collided head-on during a rainstorm Wednesday, killing two young men and injuring five other persons.

Killed were Russell C. Yaw, 19, of Dover R. 2, York County, and Roland Hawk, 19, of Cranberry, Venango County.

The two were riding in a car with Robert E. Bird, 19, of Swarthmore, the driver, and Ronald Greshman, 19, of Chatham, Pa. The four had spent the last three days at Olmsted Air Force Base, Mid-dletown, taking tests for admittance to the Air Force Academy.

Serious Condition
Both Bird and Greshman are in serious condition in Lancaster General Hospital. Bird suffered internal injuries. Greshman suffered multiple injuries.

The three occupants of the other car all were injured and admitted to Harrisburg Hospital.

They were Miss Helen Corrigan, 57, the driver; her niece, Mary C. Corrigan, 12, and Miss Clara Sperlein, 57, all of Johnstown. Helen was listed in satisfactory condition with fractures of both wrists and heels. Mary and Miss Sperlein were reported in unsatisfactory condition with leg fractures.

State police said Bird's car skidded while rounding a curve on Route 230 two miles west of this Lancaster County community and crashed into the Corrigan auto.

DISTRESSED AREA PROGRAM BEING URGED

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
CHICAGO (AP) — West Virginia's Gov. Cecil H. Underwood said today Republican leaders should press for passage, before Congress adjourns, of a bill to set up a 100 million dollar program of aid for distressed areas.

"The administration has the public prestige that can be brought to bear to enact a compromise bill this year," Underwood said in an interview.

"Obviously, such action would have political connotations. But, we should not lose a year on such vitally important legislation."

"Pork Barrel" Vetoed
Earlier this year President Eisenhower vetoed a 251 million dollar bill which would have provided grants and loans to areas of high unemployment. He called the proposal pork barrel legislation.

The administration had suggested a 57 million dollar program of grants or loans for chronically distressed regions.

"There should be an area of compromise where the two sides (Democrats and Republicans) can get together," Underwood said.

W.Va. Rate Highest
His state has the nation's highest unemployment rate. Other states especially interested in such legislation are Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Tennessee.

A new administration bill now before Congress would provide 180 million dollars in aid while another new one sponsored by Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) would provide 108 million.

"I think it is extremely important that Nixon in his campaign for the presidency develop a strong and clear position on this problem," Underwood said.

Some Disappointed
Many delegates from states with high unemployment expressed a disappointment that the GOP platform adopted Wednesday night did not hit harder at the problem of distressed regions.

Underwood said he thought the platform promise of aid for areas of high and chronic unemployment was adequate, if implemented by legislation, adding:

"I think that this problem is, and will continue to be, one of the nation's leading economic problems." He mentioned the nation's coal regions in particular.

Realistic Nixon Cuts Tie With Ike As Party Leader, Pledges Intense Campaign

Editor's Note: In the following story, Vice President Richard M. Nixon gives his own preview of the presidential campaign and some glimpses of what his administration may be like if he wins. Ernest B. Vaccaro of The Associated Press Senate staff got the vice president's consent to a leisuely interview before the convention, provided the story would be used only after a Nixon nomination.

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP)—Beginning today, Richard M. Nixon speaks as the leader of the Republican party, expressing "my own views rather than the (Eisenhower) administration position."

The vice president and Republican presidential nominee used those words in a pre-convention interview.

He said nomination would be a mandate to assume the party leadership and enunciate Nixon's, as distinguished from President Eisenhower's policies in "the most intensive campaign anyone ever undertook in my lifetime."

Not Critical
Nixon said he will not be critical of the past—"I am proud of my association with the Eisenhower administration and its record of accomplishments."

But, he went on, "I will be stating my own views. I will be talking of the new administration and looking to the future."

In a wide-ranging discussion, Nixon paid his respects to the political prowess of his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy, and said he expects his own drive for the presidency to be a "hard, uphill fight."

Close Race
He said the election will be one of the closest in history and the outcome may depend on events neither he nor Kennedy can control.

"What happens at home on the economic front, and developments abroad as they affect our hopes for peace, could have a greater impact on the outcome than what the candidates do," Nixon said.

Nixon will spell out his "policies for the 60s" in day-and-night campaigning in most of the 30 states.

Reserves Policy
He reserved for the campaign the detailed steps he has in mind on the farm, foreign policy and economic fronts, and the extent to which they might depart from or build on the Eisenhower programs.

But he was willing to share a few glimpses beyond the campaign at what a Nixon administration might be like.

The 47-year-old vice president, who has exercised unprecedented responsibility in that post, would assign even more duties to his own vice president, he said, and seek to raise even more the stature of the office.

Party Man
Nixon, the intense party man, insisted he wouldn't hesitate to pick a Democrat for a key Defense or State Department post.

During the interview, Nixon was calm and relaxed. He was solemn as he spoke of the burdens of the presidency and of his hopes.

"I have never said that I am the man for the presidency," he said, earnestly. "The election will determine that. That is the way it works out under our system of government. I am going to present my case to the people to as many of them as I can reach."

Few Mistakes
"My reading of history convinces me they have made few mistakes in choosing their presidents."

Of one thing he is sure — he would not have been available for the vice presidency if the presidential nomination had gone to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who decided against opposing Nixon in the presidential preference primaries.

"I think that eight years in the vice presidency is long enough and it is a good rule to change," Nixon said.

Is Realistic
Whether he could have defeated Rockefeller in a primary fight, Nixon didn't profess to know. But he endorsed the primary system Kennedy used so effectively.

Nixon spoke realistically of the Democrats' nationwide advantage in voting registration and of the geographical appeal of their ticket, matching New Englander Kennedy with Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

"I'm going to campaign in the South as extensively as time will permit," he added. "All-in-all, I intend to visit more states than either presidential candidate covered in 1952 or 1956."

Did he think the Kennedy-Johnson ticket is the strongest the Democrats could have nominated?

Respects Kennedy
"They thought so," Nixon said, "and I have great respect for Sen. Kennedy's political judgment."

Nixon thinks he is stronger in the Midwest, Kennedy stronger in New England.

"But the whole country will be a battleground," Nixon added.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower relaxed today in this Colorado capital where eight years ago he was planning the campaign which took him to the White House.

In contrast, today he has before him a decision on whether to yield to the clamor of thousands of youngsters and attend the annual Boy Scout Jamboree at Colorado Springs, Colo., 60 miles south of Denver.

The job of campaign planning to keep the White House in Republican hands the next four years now is the task of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Eisenhower's choice to succeed him.

The GOP presidential nomination went to Nixon, as expected, at the party's Chicago convention Wednesday night.

Sends Message To Nixon
The President watched the convention proceedings on television. He later sent a congratulatory message to Nixon.

Eisenhower, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Wednesday afternoon from Chicago where the town and the convention gave him a roaring reception.

The President and his wife came to Denver to visit the First Lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, who has been seriously ill for many months. They plan to stay on until Friday, or Saturday morning and then fly back to Newport, R. I., to resume their vacation.

RITES FOR EDITOR
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Friends and associates will pay final respects Friday to the late James W. Ross, city editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and Sun-Telegraph. He will be buried in Oakland Cemetery following services.

Ross, 41, was pronounced dead of a heart attack at Mercy Hospital Tuesday night after he had collapsed at his desk. He was named city editor last month.

COMPACT MODEL NOW
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Roy Smith, of East St. Louis, Ill., reported his 1959 model car stolen. Police found it the next day—at the bottom of a 125-foot cliff. Someone had pushed it off.

NIXON READIES FIGHTING TALK FOR DELEGATES

By JOE HALL
CHICAGO (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, the duly chosen Republican presidential nominee and at last his own man, prepared today to complete his job of taking over the party reins firmly for the historic campaign he believes lies ahead.

The vice president planned to chart the party's course for the next few months in a hard-hitting acceptance speech to the GOP National Convention tonight.

He said it would tip his hand on some details of the campaign he plans to put on against Democrat John F. Kennedy. He has said repeatedly this week his White House fight will be one of the most intense ever waged.

Speaks Mind
Nixon now obviously felt able for the first time in 7½ years to speak his own piece on issues as well as campaign strategy—something he had generally avoided as vice president.

He won that right in gaining the convention nomination Wednesday night with only the barest token opposition, a landslide in comparison to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's narrow triumph over Sen. Robert A. Taft in 1952.

Eisenhower made it quite clear he accepted this viewpoint in a telegram he sent Nixon from Denver.

Ike Agrees
"I am delighted that you are at last free to speak freely and frankly in expressing your views on the present and future of our great country," said the President.

Nixon, who spent his first two days in Chicago ironing out thorny platform disputes, settled his other problem early today by announcing Henry Cabot Lodge as his choice for a running mate.

Lodge Perfect
Lodge fits perfectly into the strategy of placing major campaign emphasis on foreign affairs which Nixon is expected to follow.

As U.S. ambassador to the United Nations for the last 7½ years, Lodge has become a familiar figure on television counter-attacking the stream of Soviet charges leveled against this country.

Republican orators at the convention have borne down heavily on the theme that Kennedy would have sent regrets to the Soviets over the U2 spy plane incident.

Some Unpopularity
The Nixon camp decided to overlook Lodge's lack of popularity with some regular GOP factions, and the feeling of some Republicans that the ambassador would add little to party hopes in Kennedy's New England stronghold. Lodge lost his Senate seat to Kennedy in 1952.

Nixon announced his choice of a running mate in the early morning hours after a 2½-hour session with 35 party leaders at his headquarters hotel.

He allowed himself only a few hours sleep before setting out this morning to complete the round of meetings with state delegations which have occupied much of his time the past two days.

BLAME YOUTH IN FATALITY

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Joseph W. Zielke, 18, of Philadelphia, faces action by a Franklin County grand jury on an involuntary manslaughter charge in a Pennsylvania Turnpike accident which claimed three lives.

A coroner's jury Wednesday night found him responsible for the July 19 accident near the Willow Hill Interchange.

Witnesses testified that Zielke's car appeared to be exceeding the speed limit when it shot across the median strip into the path of a car occupied by a serviceman and his family.

Killed were Sgt. Charles R. Grogan, 35, Benton City, Wash., his German-born wife, Franziska, 33, and her brother, George Nagler, 24, of Frankfort, Germany.

The couple's children, Patricia, 6, and Pamela, 5, are still patients at Chambersburg Hospital.

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, chosen by Vice President Nixon for his running mate on the Republican ticket, deals firmly with the Soviets in both negotiations and debate.

He has shown that in 7½ years as the U.S. permanent representative to the United Nations.

By appointment from the President, Ambassador Lodge was Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's official guide on the latter's tour of the United States last September. Lodge himself toured the Soviet Union for two weeks in January and February.

In the U.N. General Assembly last year, he negotiated agreements with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov that produced a unanimous resolution on disarmament and got the Soviets to end their boycott of the U.N. Outer Space Committee.

He was involved in negotiations in 1955 to get 16 new members into the U.N. and in 1956 to bring about a cease-fire in the Israeli and British-French attacks on Egypt and to follow it up by putting a U.N. Emergency Force into that country.

He is best known to millions of Americans as the man they see on television, retorting vigorously to the Soviets at the horseshoe table of the U.N. Security Council.

Emphatic Manner
He shows up well there. He is a broad-shouldered, 58-year-old six-footer with a handsome face, a deep suntan, bushy gray hair and an emphatic manner.

He can match Soviet spokesmen word for word in cold war talks. Sometimes he throws in lively colloquialisms like "hornsawoggle" and "cock-and-bull story."

But he delivers his blunt speeches in an accent cultivated at Middlesex and Harvard.

He is grandson and namesake of the Henry Cabot Lodge who voted in the Senate to keep the United States out of the League of Nations. He was born July 5, 1902, in Nahant, Mass. He married Emily Sears of Beverly, Mass., July 1, 1926. They have two sons, George Cabot Lodge, assistant secretary of labor in charge of public information, and Henry Sears Lodge, employee of an engineering firm near Boston. They have seven grandchildren.

HELSENKI, Finland (AP) — A Soviet scientist attending a geophysics and geodetics congress in Helsinki asked Monday for political asylum in Finland. Today he changed his mind and asked to be sent home to the Soviet Union. The name of the scientist was not disclosed. Police turned him over to the Soviet Embassy.

Tomato Season Is Here; Handle Vegetable Gently

Despite the fact that tomatoes are available at produce counters the year around everyone looks forward to the home-grown tomato season. That season has arrived, according to Tom Piper, Penn State marketing agent. Fresh home-grown tomatoes with their juicy, tomato-rich flavor will be available from now until frost. From July to October, local growers send daily shipments of tomatoes to market. These local tomatoes have superior flavor and food value when they are vine ripened. Take advantage of good quality while the season for quality tomatoes lasts. The local supply may be limited right now, but this will be corrected with a few days of warm sunshine. In the peak of the season, late July and August, home-grown tomatoes are low in price due to several factors. Savings in transportation and packaging costs and elimination of need for special ripening rooms result in lower tomato prices. Also since the tomato crop cannot be stored for long periods of time, prices must decline so supplies can be moved. If the supply does not move readily, retailers and operators of roadside stands tend to reduce the price in order to increase sales.

Shop For Quality First and of most importance to you, other shoppers and the retailer handle tomatoes gently. It is not necessary to press them to find firm ones. Tomatoes that look good likely will be your best choice. So when looking them over, choose those that are firm, grating.

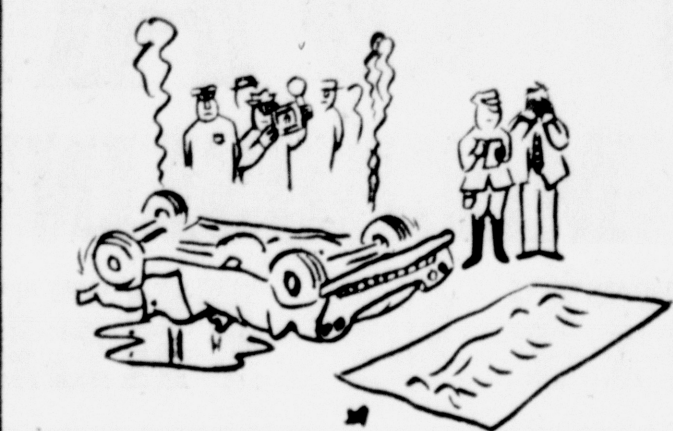

Red ripe tomatoes will keep well if stored in the refrigerator. If tomatoes are not to be used right away they may be selected a little on the green side. These ripen best at room temperature in a light or dark place but never on a sunny window sill. Bright sunshine, once they are off the vine, causes yellowing and the desirable redness will not develop. Delightful accompaniment to a shrimp or other seafood cocktail: grate cucumber and onion fine and add to catchup and chili sauce with salt and pepper to taste. If the cucumber has large seeds scoop them out before grating.

Attorney Betting It Will Rain Friday In Waynesburg

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — Wanna bet it rains in this southwestern Pennsylvania town Friday? The odds say it will.

For, in 75 of the last 84 years, the rains have fallen over Waynesburg on July 29.

And if that isn't enough to convince you, Henry Rockwood, head of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Pittsburgh, says scattered showers or thundershowers are likely to hit Waynesburg sometime Friday.

Lost Two Bets But, despite these odds, if you still want to wager against rain, look up John Daily, an attorney from around here.

Daily has been betting with prominent personalities since 1939 that it will rain on July 29th. He's only lost twice.

This year, Daily has a bet with the Three Stooges, a well-known comedy team. If it rains, Daily gets one of the Stooges' hats. If it doesn't rain, Daily sends a hat to the Stooges.

Dates From 1877 "I'm pretty confident about this year's bet," says Daily. "I think it'll rain."

Daily has won hats from such personalities as Jack Dempsey, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Charlie McCarthy. His losses were to Pittsburgh Pirate Sports-caster Bob Prince and newspaper columnist Bob Considine.

The tradition of keeping track of the "rain" day started back in 1877 according to Daily. He tells it this way:

Dad Started It A farmer came into Bill Allison's drug store on July 29 and heard the owner say: "We could sure use some rain." The farmer replied: "You know, it's darn funny, but it will rain today — always does July 29."

It did rain and Allison started keeping a log. Some years later, Byron Daily, John's father, started wagering with traveling salesmen that it would rain on July 29. When the elder Daily died, John took over and has been winning hats ever since.

Pay Raises Help So (with the connivance of Don McGuire) I have juggled our work schedule around a little. Instead of getting up in the middle of the night so we can be in makeup and wardrobe and at work when the day starts turning hot around 8 in the morning, we now start work at 2 p.m. and work until 11 p.m. The crew might be expected to Security Administration.

Q. How can I find out if my earnings are properly credited to my account? A. You can obtain a postcard form for this purpose from your local social security office. Ask for Form OAR-7004. Complete the card and mail it to the Social Security Administration, Baltimore 35, Md. It is wise to check your account every three years.

Q. How do I get credit for my earnings? A. Your employers file a tax return with the Director of Internal Revenue every three months. This tax return lists your name, social security account number and wages paid to you during the quarter. If you are self-employed and your net earnings are at least $400 a year, you report your earnings and pay the social security tax to the Director of Internal Revenue at the same time you file your income tax return. The Director of Internal Revenue forwards these reports to the Social

"HOW TO RUN HAPPY SHIP" ON TV SHOW

Editor's Note — This is another in a series of guest columns during AP TV-Radio writer Cynthia Lowry's vacation. The author is star of the CBS "Hennessey" show.

By JACKIE COOPER Written for The Associated Press

The title of this column might be "How to Run a Happy Ship." On "Hennessey," which is a naval sort of series, we like to think in nautical terms. And what I'm concerned with, as coproducer (with Don McGuire) of the series, is keeping the cast and crew happy.

One of the best ways to keep a cast and crew happy is to have a nice, friendly, witty girl on the premises, who is also very pretty. This we accomplished by casting Abby Dalton as nurse Martha Hale.

Director Blames Weather This, of course, is the function of the cast and crew as much as it is of the producer. But try and tell them that. If the ratings slip a point the makeup man blames the director, the director blames the actors, the sound man blames the script girl, and the sponsor blames the producer.

The producer blames the weather. Well, I don't even have the weather to blame any more. It gets pretty hot on a sound stage, even in winter, and a Southern California summer makes the stages hotter than Texas chili.

Pay Raises Help So (with the connivance of Don McGuire) I have juggled our work schedule around a little. Instead of getting up in the middle of the night so we can be in makeup and wardrobe and at work when the day starts turning hot around 8 in the morning, we now start work at 2 p.m. and work until 11 p.m. The crew might be expected to Security Administration.

Q. What can I do if I learn that some wages have not been credited to my social security account? A. Get in touch with your local social security district office. They will assist you in having the mistake corrected. It will help them if you bring some evidence of the unreported wages with you, such as a W-2 form.

Q. I have a small business of my own and make less than $1,000 a year. I do not have to pay any income tax. Do I have to pay the social security tax? A. Yes. Any person who has net earnings of $400 or more from a trade or business is required to file a self-employment tax return and to pay the social security tax. You must make this report to the Internal Revenue Service even though no income tax is due.

Social Security

Q. How can I find out if my earnings are properly credited to my account?

A. You can obtain a postcard form for this purpose from your local social security office. Ask for Form OAR-7004. Complete the card and mail it to the Social Security Administration, Baltimore 35, Md. It is wise to check your account every three years.

Q. How do I get credit for my earnings?

A. Your employers file a tax return with the Director of Internal Revenue every three months. This tax return lists your name, social security account number and wages paid to you during the quarter. If you are self-employed and your net earnings are at least $400 a year, you report your earnings and pay the social security tax to the Director of Internal Revenue at the same time you file your income tax return. The Director of Internal Revenue forwards these reports to the Social Security Administration.

Q. What can I do if I learn that some wages have not been credited to my social security account?

A. Get in touch with your local social security district office. They will assist you in having the mistake corrected. It will help them if you bring some evidence of the unreported wages with you, such as a W-2 form.

Q. I have a small business of my own and make less than $1,000 a year. I do not have to pay any income tax. Do I have to pay the social security tax?

A. Yes. Any person who has net earnings of $400 or more from a trade or business is required to file a self-employment tax return and to pay the social security tax. You must make this report to the Internal Revenue Service even though no income tax is due.

bridge a little at this summer switch in hours, for a number of reasons. But there are two overwhelming reasons why they are in favor of it: Union rules require that they be paid a premium for working after 6 p.m., and they like to work in the cool of the evening.

There are other ways of keeping a cast and crew happy, too. Like raising everybody's pay and giving everyone top billing.

But then Don McGuire wouldn't be happy.

CHIMPANZEES BOLT ZOO

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nine chimpanzees bolted from the Highland Park Zoo late Monday and played hide-and-seek with zoo officials.

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — N. D. (Dan) Teters, 59, vice president of the Morrison-Knudsen Co., construction firm with global operations, died Monday at his home in Friday Harbor, Wash., the company announced here. Teters was project manager on Wake Island when the island fell to the Japanese in 1941 and he spent four years in prison camps.

By early morning police had captured three. Three others were shot. The rest eluded capture—at least for the moment.

The chimpanzees scrambled out of their pens after a strong wind blew over a tree. City officials ordered the zoo, a swimming pool and the picnic area closed temporarily.

Tomato Season Is Here; Handle Vegetable Gently

Despite the fact that tomatoes are available at produce counters the year around everyone looks forward to the home-grown tomato season. That season has arrived, according to Tom Piper, Penn. State marketing agent. Fresh home-grown tomatoes with their juicy, tomato-rich flavor will be available from now until frost. From July to October, local growers send daily shipments of tomatoes to market. These local tomatoes have superior flavor and food value when they are vine ripened. Take advantage of good quality while the season for quality tomatoes lasts. The local supply may be limited right now, but this will be corrected with a few days of warm sunshine. In the peak of the season, late July and August, home-grown tomatoes are low in price due to several factors. Savings in transportation and packaging costs and elimination of need for special ripening rooms result in lower tomato prices. Also since the tomato crop cannot be stored for long periods of time, prices must decline so supplies can be moved. If the supply does not move readily, retailers and operators of roadside stands tend to reduce the price in order to increase sales.

Shop For Quality

First and of most importance to you, other shoppers and the retailer handle tomatoes gently. It is not necessary to press them to find firm ones. Tomatoes that look good likely will be your best choice. So when looking them over, choose those that are firm, grating.

mature, but not over ripe. Top quality tomatoes should also be plump and smooth, well colored and free from blemishes. Scars around the blossom end or odd shaped tomatoes are not serious defects except from the standpoint of waste. On the other hand, one soft spot can spoil one whole tomato. Red ripe tomatoes will keep well if stored in the refrigerator. If tomatoes are not to be used right away they may be selected a little on the green side. These ripen best at room temperature in a light or dark place but never on a sunny window sill. Bright sunshine, once they are off the vine, causes yellowing and the desirable redness will not develop.

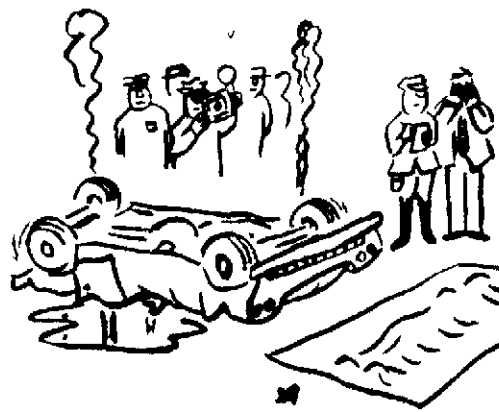

Delightful accompaniment to a shrimp or other seafood cocktail: grate cucumber and onion fine and add to catchup and chili sauce with salt and pepper to taste. If the cucumber has large seeds scoop them out before grating.

Attorney Betting It Will Rain Friday In Waynesburg

WAYNEBURG, Pa. (AP)—Wanna bet it rains in this southwestern Pennsylvania town Friday? The odds say it will.

For, in 75 of the last 84 years, the rains have fallen over Waynesburg on July 29.

And if that isn't enough to convince you, Henry Rockwood, head of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Pittsburgh, says scattered showers or thundershowers are likely to hit Waynesburg sometime Friday.

Last Two Bets

But, despite these odds, if you still want to wager against rain, look up John Daily, an attorney from around here. Daily has been betting with prominent personalities since 1939 that it will rain on July 29th. He's only lost twice.

This year, Daily has a bet with the Three Stooges, a well-known comedy team, if it rains. Daily gets one of the Stooges' hats. If it doesn't rain, Daily sends a hat to the Stooges.

Dates From 1877

"I'm pretty confident about this year's bet," says Daily. "I think it'll rain."

Daily has won hats from such personalities as Jack Dempsey, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Charlie McCarthy. His losses were to Pittsburgh Pirate Sportscenter Bob Prince and newspaper columnist Bob Considine.

The tradition of keeping track of the "rain" day started back in 1877 according to Daily. He tells it this way:

Dad Started It

A farmer came into Bill Allison's drug store on July 29 and heard the owner say: "We could sure use some rain." The farmer replied: "You know, it's darn funny, but it will rain today — always does July 29."

It did rain and Allison started keeping a log. Some years later, Byron Daily, John's father, started wagering with traveling salesmen that it would rain on July 29. When the elder Daily died, John took over and has been winning hats ever since.

"HOW TO RUN HAPPY SHIP" ON TV SHOW

Editor's Note — This is another in a series of guest columns during AP TV-Radio writer Cynthia Lowry's vacation. The author is star of the CBS "Hennessey" show.

By JACKIE COOPER

Written for The Associated Press

The title of this column might be "How to Run a Happy Ship." On "Hennessey," which is a naval sort of series, we like to think in nautical terms. And what I'm concerned with, as coproducer (with Don McGuire) of the series, is keeping the cast and crew happy.

One of the best ways to keep a cast and crew happy is to have a nice, friendly, witty girl on the premises, who is also very pretty. This was accomplished by casting Abby Dalton as nurse Martha Hale.

Another way is to provide all hands (That's another nautical term. Forgive me) with a show that turns up respectably near the top in the ratings.

Director Blames Weather

This, of course, is the function of the cast and crew as much as it is of the producer. But try and tell them that. If the ratings slip a point the makeup man blames the director, the director blames the actors, the sound man blames the script girl, and the sponsor blames the producer.

The producer blames the weather.

Well, I don't even have the weather to blame any more. It gets pretty hot on a sound stage, even in winter, and a Southern California summer makes the stages hotter than Texas chili.

Pay Raises Help

So (with the connivance of Don McGuire) I have juggled our work schedule around a little. Instead of getting up in the middle of the night so we can be in makeup and wardrobe and at work when the day starts turning hot around 8 in the morning, we now start at 2 p.m. and work until 11 p.m. The crew might be expected to Security Administration.

Q. What can I do if I learn that some wages have not been credited to my social security account?

A. Get in touch with your local social security district office. It will assist you in having the mistake corrected. It will help them if you bring some evidence of the unreported wages with you, such as a W-2 form.

Q. I have a small business of my own and make less than $1,000 a year. I do not have to pay any income tax. Do I have to pay the social security tax?

Teeters was project manager on Wake Island when the island fell to the Japanese in 1941 and he spent four years in prison camps.

By early morning police had captured three. Three others were shot. The rest eluded capture—at least for the moment.

"Minimum Adequate Program" In Pa. Education Will Be Mapped By State Committee

By FRED B. WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—An entirely different approach to subsidizing Pennsylvania's vast public school system is being worked into shape by Gov. Lawrence's Committee on Education, the Associated Press learned today.

If the plan is adopted, the state for the first time would spell out in detail what taxpayers' dollars should buy in terms of instruction and services for Pennsylvania's nearly two million public school children.

It would, proponents said, insure that children living anywhere in the state would get at least what educators consider a minimum of good education. Its architects, in fact, have tentatively dubbed the new approach, a "Minimum Adequate Program (M.A.P.) for mapping Pennsylvania's educational future."

Not For Two Years
Several important steps lay ahead of the plan before it can become a reality, however.

First, it must be accepted by the full committee. Secondly, a method for financing it must be determined, including how much of the cost the state and local communities will share. Third, it will most likely require legislative approval. Fourth, administrative procedures will have to be worked out.

It is estimated that it would take at least two years to put it into effect if it survives the first three steps.

No Costs Estimates
The committee's final decision is not expected until the fall. No estimates of the total cost of the program were available.

The basic concept of the new plan is the so-called "foundation" program widely used in other states. Advocates of this approach say it offers a more realistic method of supporting public education because subsidies are related directly to the cost of desired service.

Under the present system, adopted 15 years ago and refined in subsequent years, money is distributed more on the basis of what is available than what it is buying.

Would Raise Costs
Specific details of the new program were not available, but its advocates said that in detail and scope it is the most comprehensive foundation plan ever devised.

The committee, it was learned from reliable sources who did not want to be mentioned by name, is working out a complete program. It will mandate what the schools should offer not only in terms of curriculum, but also in special classes for both handicapped and gifted children, and in services, including even clerical help in administrative offices.

They tentatively estimate it would raise the basic cost of a teaching unit to about $9,000. (A teaching unit is 30 elementary or 22 secondary pupils.) The state presently subsidizes its school districts on a $5,800 base. Educators maintain this no longer is realistic and have urged that it be raised.

RIOTING ENDS IN RHODESIA

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Long lines of Africans streamed back to work Wednesday, indicating a return to normal after three days of rioting in which at least nine Negroes were killed and 118 injured.

Eighty per cent of the labor force was back at work in the city's 450 factories after a work boycott that accompanied the violence. The rest of the workers were expected on the job later.

Military cordons protected all roads to the industrial sites from interference by diehard rioters. Police confirmed that their gunfire killed five of the slain nine Africans. The police said they fired in self-defense. At least one of the dead was battered to death by rioters enforcing the work boycott.

The rioting was confined to the city's African sectors, which more than 2,000 European and African soldiers and police sealed off to protect the city's 45,000 whites.

Soldiers established a number of tactical strong points throughout the violence areas. The rioters also lost considerable of their zeal

THOMAS E. PIPER
Area Marketing Agent

Summertime has brought forth an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables and prices are declining on most commodities, reports Tom Piper, Penn State marketing agent. Food shoppers will find chuck roasts and fresh picnics the better buys at the meat counter this weekend.

The harvest of fresh vegetables from local producing areas is underway. Roadside stands, farmer's markets and retail stores are displaying the long awaited sweet corn and tomatoes. For field fresh flavor buy sweet corn from refrigerated or iced displays. The best tomatoes are firm, well shaped, heavy for size and free from growth cracks, insect or other types of damage.

Best Vegetable Buys
The outstanding vegetable buys include all salad-type vegetables this week — cabbage for cole slaw, tomatoes and cucumbers for many types of salad preparation. When buying cabbage purchase heads that are closely trimmed and firm. Long, straight, green cucumbers should be your choice if you wish to avoid waste.

Prices for potatoes, celery and carrots are moving lower. Lettuce appears sharply higher in price while first of season sweet potatoes and lima beans are available at reasonable prices.

Summer apples and peaches highlight a wide variety of bargain priced fruit. Cantaloupes have declined in price from last week's levels as many more nearby cantaloupes are being received in local markets. Other good buys include watermelons, plums, nectarines, lemons and limes.

Chuck roasts of beef continue to hold the best buy position at retail meat counters. Almost continually easing beef costs provide more merchandising room for steaks, too, despite heavier summer demand. Fresh picnics will appear as an economy cut in some stores as fresh pork prices appear to have finally bumped the ceiling.

after they drank up all the looted beer and wine that helped fuel their orgy of violence and burning.

PA. DELEGATES BACKING LODGE FOR V. P. POST

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

CHICAGO (AP)—The Pennsylvania delegation today puts its 70 Republican convention votes behind presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon's choice of Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to the United States, for his vice presidential running mate.

Wednesday night the delegation joined the parade of states in voting Nixon the party's presidential nomination. The count was well past the required total of 666 votes when the Keystone State got its turn in the alphabetical roll call of states.

Pennsylvania's unanimous showing for Nixon was no surprise. That had been expected since a caucus Wednesday afternoon.

Stassen Gets In Line
Harold Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, shucked off his old opposition to Nixon to give the Pennsylvanians a solid front. He is a delegate from Philadelphia. Stassen earlier had made a futile effort to muster sentiment in the delegation for a draft of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, but he gave up at a closed caucus shortly before Wednesday night's convention session and announced he would vote for Nixon.

Sen. Hugh Scott, delegation chairman, said Lodge was the only name which won applause from Pennsylvania delegates, though seven other prospects were mentioned in the caucus.

Unanimous Choice
The delegation was unanimous in its support of the party platform adopted Wednesday night. But some of the coal region delegates expressed disappointment that the platform did not give more attention to aid for distressed areas—a prime subject in Pennsylvania.

Republican policy makers have predicted the Democrats will seek to make a campaign issue out of President Eisenhower's veto of a 180 million dollar aid program.

To Talk With Nixon
The delegation voted to have Rep. Ivor Fenton meet with other Pennsylvania lawmakers in an effort to work out such a program and then discuss it with Nixon.

Scott said Nixon will have "something to say of a favorable nature on chronic labor surplus legislation along the line of bills introduced by Pennsylvania Republicans."

Nixon has promised to make such a statement, Scott said.

CHA-CHA BANS LOSE BATTLE IN INDONESIA

By JOHN GRIFFIN

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—President Sukarno is losing the battle of the cha-cha.

The evidence is as plain as young Indonesian couples dance to the bongo bat at a government-run night spot just half a block from his downtown palace.

Since traditional Indonesian dances are slow, some sociologists feel the cha-cha provides an element of hip-swinging abandon for a youth faced with mounting frustrations and limited opportunities.

Began Attack
A young Indonesian puts it a simpler way — "We like it — it's fun." Sukarno, a staunch nationalist, went on the attack a year ago.

In a series of speeches and statements, he labeled cha-cha and rock 'n' roll mixed up noises called music. He called the new dances the first steps in a foreign cultural imperialism that could destroy Indonesia's national identity.

The Jakarta army garrison outlawed cha-cha, even in private homes. Records in stores were destroyed, and a fine was ordered for anyone teaching the banned steps.

Folk Dances
Sukarno stressed even more than Indonesian folk dances were the patriotic thing to do. He often keeps Jakarta's diplomatic corps going for two hours or more — elderly envoys and their wives from both sides of the Iron and Bamboo curtains weaving hand in hand about in an endless chain to beat of tom toms and chants from the Spice Islands. Sukarno leads the way.

But few of Jakarta's city-bred youth follow the presidential lead.

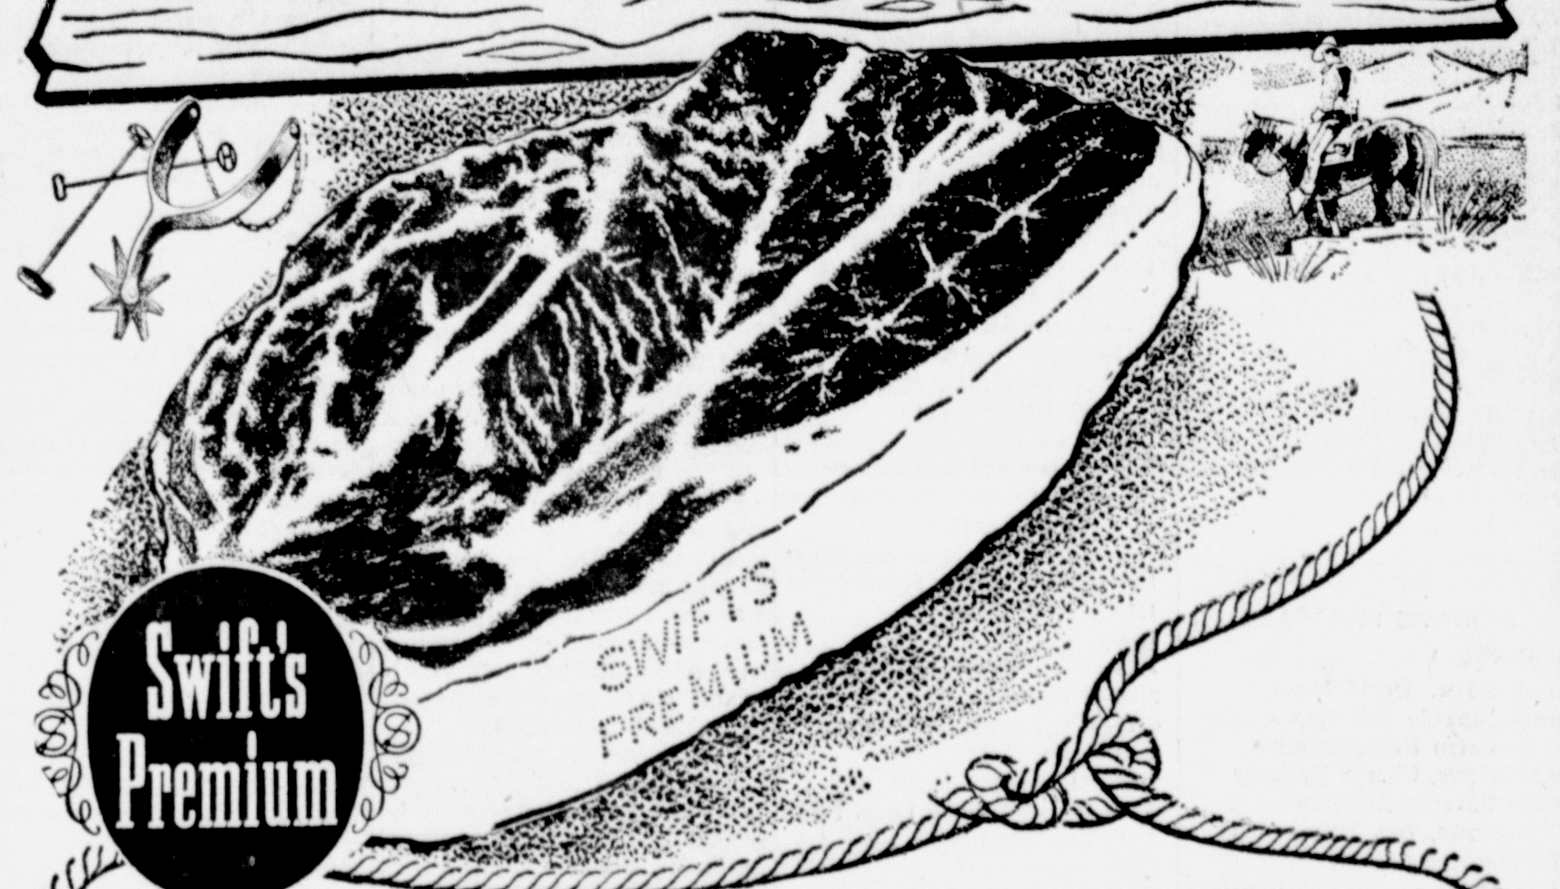

At first they went underground. Teen-agers and college students had cha-cha parties at private homes, behind drawn curtains. Foreigners with cha-cha records became popular hosts.

Then came a bolder move. Enterprising band leaders took some of the Indonesian songs Sukarno likes so much and gave them a Latin beat.

Now blaring jazz and Latin music is far out into the open.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Two hundred college students paraded through Seoul Wednesday, campaigning for national austerity and against smoking of American cigarettes. U.S. tobacco is a target of several student movements who claim most of it in Korea is of black market origin.

Folk Dances

Sukarno stressed even more than Indonesian folk dances were the patriotic thing to do. He often keeps Jakarta's diplomatic corps going for two hours or more — elderly envoys and their wives from both sides of the Iron and Bamboo curtains weaving hand in hand about in an endless chain to beat of tom toms and chants from the Spice Islands. Sukarno leads the way.

But few of Jakarta's city-bred youth follow the presidential lead.

At first they went underground. Teen-agers and college students had cha-cha parties at private homes, behind drawn curtains. Foreigners with cha-cha records became popular hosts.

Then came a bolder move. Enterprising band leaders took some of the Indonesian songs Sukarno likes so much and gave them a Latin beat.

Now blaring jazz and Latin music is far out into the open.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Two hundred college students paraded through Seoul Wednesday, campaigning for national austerity and against smoking of American cigarettes. U.S. tobacco is a target of several student movements who claim most of it in Korea is of black market origin.

Civil Rights Issues Are Strong In Both Platforms

By OVID A. MARTIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Here is a brief comparison between the civil rights plank adopted by the Democratic party and that approved by the Republican Platform Committee for submission to the party's convention:

VOTING — Democrats pledged use of full powers of existing law to secure ballot for all. They promised to support action to eliminate state literacy tests and payment of poll taxes as requirements for voting.

The Republican plank also pledged use of existing law to end discrimination at the ballot box. But it pledged legislation to provide that completion of six primary grades in state accredited schools is conclusive evidence of literacy for voting purposes.

Education Aims

EDUCATION — Democrats promised to use full powers—legal and moral—to ensure the beginning of good faith compliance with the Supreme Court's school desegregation decision. They would give local school districts until 1963 to submit plans for first-step compliance with that decision.

The Republican plank pledged use of the Civil Rights Act of 1960 to prevent obstruction of court desegregation orders. It proposed legislation authorizing the Justice Department to bring actions for school desegregation in appropriate cases, as when economic coercion or threat of physical harm is used to deter persons from going to court to establish their rights. It rejected the Democratic proposal to give school districts three years to submit plans for beginning integration.

Employment Plank

EMPLOYMENT — Democrats promised support of legislation to establish a fair employment practices commission to help end discrimination in employment. They also promised to use full executive powers to assure racial equality in federal employment and in all activities carried on under government contracts.

The Republican plank pledged creation of a commission on equal job opportunity to continue present federal efforts to end job discrimination on government contracts. It promised legislation to end discriminatory membership practices of some labor union locals, unless such practices are ended by the unions themselves. It pledged also development of a federal-state program to end discrimination in all employment areas.

Housing Pledge

HOUSING — Democrats promised to take action to end discrimination in federal housing programs.

The Republican plank pledged action to prohibit discrimination in housing constructed with aid of federal subsidies.

FEDERAL FACILITIES AND SERVICES — Democrats said the Justice Department should be empowered and directed to file civil injunction suits to prevent discrimination in all areas of community life, such as voting, schools, housing, jobs and public facilities.

GOP Promise

The Republican plank promised to end discrimination in federal facilities, to oppose use of federal funds for building segregated community facilities and to insure that public transportation and other government-authorized services are free of segregation.

SIT-IN DEMONSTRATIONS — Democrats said such peaceful affairs are a signal to the nation to make good in guaranteeing civil rights.

The Republican plank reaffirmed the constitutional right to peaceable assembly to protest discrimination in private business establishments, and applauded businessmen who have abandoned discriminatory practices.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE — Democrats said congressional procedure should be improved to permit majority rule.

The Republican plank pledged the party's best efforts to change congressional procedures that often make unattainable proper legislative action in the civil rights field.

POLITICIANS INEFFECTIVE ON TELEVISION

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Are the national political conventions modeled in the 1960s?

The question was being asked as the second big party gathering approached its end on the nation's TV screens tonight.

There can be no doubt that both the Republicans and Democrats were aiming at the millions of TV watchers in planning their conventions. This was the third nationally televised set of conclaves. Both sides should have realized the value of putting their best forward for the home audience.

Inattentive Audience

The Democratic meeting in Los Angeles went on in six and eight-hour sessions that strained the attention of even the most loyal party members. The platform was delivered interminably before milling delegates. Much party business was conducted before an inattentive audience.

The Republican session profited from some of the opposition's mistakes. It marshaled delegates to pay attention, though the noise of indifference was sometimes heard. The platform was presented in concise form.

But despite all the planning, the Republican convention has suffered from talkiness, lack of excitement, poor timing and resultant apathy of many viewers.

Another Era

One of the top TV men spoke out this week. Said Robert Sarnoff, NBC board chairman: "The politicians 'have the musty, archaic air of another era, and it's difficult to understand why the party chieftains persist in the kind of ritual that displays to a national audience the ostentatious indifference of a hallful of delegates to their own speakers.'"

He commented that the politicians have barely made the first step toward using TV effectively.

The networks' concern is perhaps understandable. They claim to lose millions of dollars by their convention coverage.

Of course, political conventions are not run to please networks. They have important business. But they are also aimed at winning and holding adherents to the party cause. It's hard to accomplish this by being a national bore.

located at the Firestone Store, E. King St., will feature all kinds of baked goods, candy and cold sandwiches.

A teen-age dance sponsored by the VFW will be held Friday beginning at 8 p.m. at the post home. All teen-agers in the community are invited to attend.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Six persons have been appointed members of the state's new Anthracite Mine Drainage Commission.

Representing Anthracite employees—Stephen J. Engle of Mahanoy City; Leo Filip of Plymouth and Bernard McHugh of Trescow.

Representing mine owners—Harold Wickey, vice president of the Glen Alden Corp.; Ashley; George J. Clark, president of Reading Anthracite, Pottsville, and John G. Connell, general manager of the John G. Connell Co., West Pittston.

The commission was set up by the Legislature to advise the Mines Department on the use of mine drainage funds allocated by the state and federal governments.

STARS PASS UP EASTERN OPEN

BALTIMORE (AP) — Golf's traveling show took over the Pine Ridge course today for the opening of the $25,000 Eastern Open without having to worry about the likes of Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead.

Palmer, Snead, and another PGA tourist, Art Wall Jr., chose instead this week to play for guaranteed exhibition fees in adjacent Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Bob Rosburg, PGA Tournament Committee chairman, said Snead was paid $500 to play only in Wednesday's Eastern pro-am and $1,000 was dangled unsuccessfully before Palmer and Wall to come here for the 72-hole tourney.

Meanwhile, the 142 pros entered in the Eastern promise to give the Pine Ridge par of 72 a licking. Fifty tuned up Wednesday in a pro-amateur event and 26 were under par despite playing in showers that added length to the 6,820 yard course.

Gay Brewer Jr. of Crystal River, Fla., and Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., led with 66. Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., and Ronnie Reif of Singing Hills, Calif., were only a stroke behind.

The Republican plank also pledged use of existing law to end discrimination at the ballot box.
But it pledged legislation to provide that completion of six primary grades in state accredited schools is conclusive evidence of literacy for voting purposes.

Education Aims

EDUCATION — Democrats promised to use full powers—legal and moral—to ensure the beginning of good faith compliance with the Supreme Court's school desegregation decision. They would give local school districts until 1963 to submit plans for first-step compliance with that decision.

The Republican plank pledged use of the Civil Rights Act of 1960 to prevent obstruction of court desegregation orders. It proposed legislation authorizing the Justice Department to bring actions for school desegregation in appropriate cases, as when economic coercion or threat of physical harm is used to deter persons from going to court to establish their rights. It rejected the Democratic proposal to give school districts three years to submit plans for beginning integration.

Employment Plank

EMPLOYMENT — Democrats promised support of legislation to establish a fair employment practices commission to help end discrimination in employment. They also promised to use full executive powers to assure racial equality in federal employment and in all activities carried on under government contracts.

The Republican plank pledged creation of a commission on equal job opportunity to continue present federal efforts to end job discrimination on government contracts. It promised legislation to end discriminatory membership practices of some labor union locals, unless such practices are ended by the unions themselves.
It pledged also development of a federal-state program to end discrimination in all employment areas.

Housing Pledge

HOUSING — Democrats promised to take action to end discrimination in federal housing programs.

The Republican plank pledged action to prohibit discrimination in housing constructed with aid of federal subsidies.

FEDERAL FACILITIES AND SERVICES

— Democrats said the Justice Department should be empowered and directed to file civil injunction suits to prevent discrimination in all areas of community life, such as voting, schools, housing, jobs and public facilities.

GOP Promise

The Republican plank promised to end discrimination in federal facilities, to oppose use of federal funds for building segregated community facilities and to insure that public transportation and other government-authorized services are free of segregation.

SIT-IN DEMONSTRATIONS — Democrats said such peaceful affairs are a signal to the nation to make good in guaranteeing civil rights.

The Republican plank reaffirmed the constitutional right to peaceable assembly to protest discrimination in private business establishments, and applauded businessmen who have abandoned discriminatory practices.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE — Democrats said congressional procedure should be improved to permit majority rule.

The Republican plank pledged the party's best efforts to change congressional procedures that often make unattainable proper legislative action in the civil rights field.

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Are the national political conventions outmoded in the 1960s?
The question was being asked as the second big party gathering approached its end on the nation's TV screens tonight.

There can be no doubt that both the Republicans and Democrats were aiming at the millions of TV watchers in planning their conventions. This was the third nationally televised set of conclaves. Both sides should have realized the value of putting their best feet forward for the home audience.

Inattentive Audience

The Democratic meeting in Los Angeles went on in six and eight-hour sessions that strained the attention of even the most loyal party members. The platform was delivered interminably before thrilling delegates. Much party business was conducted before an inattentive audience.

The Republican session profited from some of the opposition's mistakes. It marshalled delegates to pay attention, though the noise of indifference was sometimes heard.
The platform was presented in concise form.

But despite all the planning, the Republican convention has suffered from talkiness, lack of excitement, poor timing and resultant apathy of many viewers.

Another Era

One of the top TV men spoke out this week. Said Robert Sarnoff, NBC board chairman: "The politicians 'have the musty, archaic air of another era, and it's difficult to understand why the party chiefs persist in the kind of ritual that displays to a national audience the ostentatious indifference of a hallful of delegates to their own speakers.'"

He commented that the politicos have barely made the first step toward using TV effectively.

"The networks' concern is perhaps understandable. They claim to lose millions of dollars by their convention coverage."

Of course, political conventions are not run to please networks.
They have important business.
But they are also aimed at winning and holding adherents to the party cause. It's hard to accomplish this by being a national bore.

Cheers And Boos Follow Nixon's Varied Roles In Nation's Political Arena

Editor's Note—Attack and counter-attack, high drama, and relentless determination mark the amazing political rise of Richard Nixon. Pro or con, few people are neutral toward the Republican presidential nominee. This is the first of a series.

By SAUL PETT

CHICAGO (AP)—American will see a double image on its television sets tonight when Richard Milhous Nixon rises to accept the Republican nomination for president.

Few people, it may be reasonably assumed, will see a clear neutral picture free of subjective fuzziness. Few will see the same man.

For seldom have so many Americans been so emotionally divided in advance at the debut of a first-time candidate for president.

Double View

Another large group will see only a suspicious, overly ambitious, cynical politician.

With few exceptions, Nixon has generated far more heat than most candidates long before he even began his first presidential campaign. He has thrown more tomatoes that stained and he has received more.

For years, he has been the No. 1 tormentor and target of the Democrats. And this year they can be expected to go all out since they no longer have to reach around the protective form of Dwight D. Eisenhower to grab at "his boy" and vice president.

Why? Probably because Nixon has been involved, as a congressman, senator and vice president, in so many supercharged events that registered in the public consciousness.

Varied Events

The statesmanlike tact and dignity of a young vice president filling in for a dangerously ill, highly popular president; the shocking spittle and flying glass of a roaring Venezuelan mob attacking not just a man but a symbol of America, and the man proved his physical courage. The extraordinary spectacle of a young American standing up to and countering with skillful effectiveness against the supreme dictator of the Soviet Union on his own home grounds.

Let's begin with the campaign of 1946 when an unknown young lawyer from Whittier, Calif., late discharged from the Navy, took on a well-entrenched Democrat seeking to retain his seat in Congress.

Richard Nixon fought Jerry

Voorhis largely on the premise that a "vote for Nixon is a vote against the Communist-dominated PAC (Political Action Committee of the CIO) with its gigantic slush fund."

Won Decisively

The young Republican won decisively, by more than 15,000 votes.

In 1948, Congressman Nixon, a member of the House Un-American Activities Investigating Committee, heard Whittaker Chambers testify that Alger Hiss had been part of a Communist spy ring within our borders.

The committee then heard Hiss. Most members were inclined to doubt Chambers and believe Hiss at first glance. Not Nixon. He pushed for the great confrontation.

Hiss Suit

They finally met and that led to Hiss' libel suit and the libel suit ultimately led to Hiss' own indictment and conviction for perjury.

In 1950, "the man who caught Hiss" ran for the U.S. Senate against Helen Gahagan Douglas. Even before she squared off against Nixon, Mrs. Douglas already had had a rough Democratic primary; her opponent had cried out against her "consistent policy of voting along with the notorious New York radical, Vito Marcantonio."

In the general election, Nixon adopted the same theme, only he expanded it, intensified it, dramatized it, hammered away at it with relentless fire. He circulated thousands of "pink sheets" describing the voting record of the "pink lady" and insisting she had voted the same way as Marcantonio no less than 354 times.

Huge Victory

Little was said about the fact many of the votes had nothing to do with communism. Nixon won by 700,000 votes.

He was well on his way toward the hot center of the national campaigner. He had the issue and he had the badge as the sheriff who had nabbed Hiss and wrestled two "left-wingers" to the ground.

Richard Milhous Nixon was now rolling forward with great momentum but then came the campaign of 1952 and he was almost derailed permanently.

Next: The great campaigns

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad, the Transport Workers Union and the Systems Federation have announced jointly that contract negotiations have been recessed until Aug. 15.

The unions and the railroad have been negotiating daily since July 13 in effort to reconcile a dispute over work rules.

Although the TWU threatened a strike anytime after midnight, July 25, no specific date or time has been announced. Today's statement reiterated that the unions would give the railroad 10 days notice of a walkout.

RULES REFORM IS ANNOUNCED BY POPE JOHN

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII, in major liturgical reform for the Roman Catholic Church, has announced that a new code of rules for the Roman Breviary and Mass will become effective Jan. 1.

In a formal document—a "Motu Proprio" or order by the Pope's "own hand"—the head of the Roman Catholic Church said the new rules will be promulgated soon.

He said the new code combines the rules "in a better form, arranged in a clearer order" and religious services will be shortened and simplified.

Changes Unspecified

He did not specify what changes will be made.

The 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church said a new calendar of the Breviary and Mass also will be issued.

Pope John noted that the rules have undergone constant change through the centuries. He said these changes were "not always in a systematic order and therefore not without damage to the

Fail To Revive Dying Boy, Aged 4

A handyman found the 4-year-old child lying face down with his arm draped across an irrigation pipe on his parents' farm five miles from here.

The pipe leaked and the boy was in a puddle of water. There were burns on his arm. Authorities said an electric pump in the well that supplied the pipe with water had short-circuited sending current through the pipe.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cedric Gibbons, 65, winner of 11 Academy awards for movie art direction, died Tuesday after a long illness. He retired four years ago after 32 years as head of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer art department.

primitive (original) simplicity and foresight."

Pope John said he decided to propose to the ecumenical council—a meeting of Roman Catholic prelates from around the world, expected to convene in a year or two—fundamental principles for liturgical reforms.

CONGO SHOULD BE U. N. TRUST

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Belgian government believes this newly independent Congo republic should become a United Nations trust territory, highly placed Belgian sources said today.

"Only a strong United Nations administration can save this country from chaos and disaster," a Belgian official said.

He said it was the view of the Belgian government that there is no other solution to the strife-torn former Belgian colony but to turn it over entirely to the U.N.

A Belgian Embassy spokesman stressed that Belgium will continue to view the Congolese government as virtually nonexistent.

The return of Belgian technicians to help stave off the Congo's economic collapse is impossible at this time the spokesman said. He was commenting on Congolese Finance Minister Pascal Nkany's appeal to Belgians to return to their posts.

Different and good: cook chicken livers in butter and use them to top portions of spaghetti and tomato sauce; pass grated Parmesan or Romano cheese.

MR. PRESIDENT

by Patrick and Vinmont

ULYSSES SIMPSON GRANT

Born at Point Pleasant, Ohio, April 27, 1822. He graduated from West Point in 1843. He served through the Mexican War and after a year in Oregon resigned from the service. Appointed colonel at the start of the Civil War, he was lieutenant general in command of all the Union armies at its close. By an act of Congress he was given the rank of general.

His efforts toward reconstruction increased his popularity and he was chosen the Republican nominee for President in 1868.

Inaugurated the eighteenth President of the United States, March 4, 1869, he served two terms. This was the most corrupt period in U. S. political history. Above suspicion himself, his dependence upon the judgment of friends and politicians resulted in unwise appointments. The panic of 1873 was the outcome of a situation where investment ran into speculation and industrial activity exceeded demand. He measured up to the expectation of the people by settling peaceably the "Alabama" claims against Great Britain, vetoing a currency inflation bill and calling for the resumption of specie payments.

For three years after retirement he toured the world. He sought the Presidential nomination again in 1880 but was not chosen. Again in retirement, he wrote his personal memoirs to recoup the financial loss he incurred in a banking partnership. He died on July 23, 1885, aged 63.

SCHUYLER COLFAX

Born in New York City, New York, 1823. He attended common school in New York but grew up in South Bend, Indiana where at twenty-two he was part owner and editor of a weekly newspaper. In 1848 he served as a member of the committee in drafting a new Indiana constitution. Elected a member of the United States House of Representatives in 1854, he served continuously until 1869—three times as Speaker. Nominated and elected Vice-President of the United States in 1868, Colfax (pictured above) served four years. The involvement of his name in the Credit Mobilier scandal, near the close of his term, prompted him to retire from politics. He died in 1885.

Henry C. Wilson, representing Massachusetts in the United States Senate from 1855 to 1873, was the elected Vice-President during Grant's second term. Born in Farmington, New Hampshire, 1812, he died in office in 1875.

MRS. ULYSSES S. GRANT

Born in 1826, Julia Dent, well-educated and attractive daughter of a St. Louis judge, was married at twenty-two to Ulysses Grant. Socially trained and only forty-three when her husband became President, she was delighted to go to the White House. An indefatigable and increasingly popular hostess, she presided with the same sincere and gracious friendliness at her numerous informal gatherings as at the gay, brilliant and elegant functions for which she became famous. A notable event was the wedding of the President's lovely daughter, Nellie, to a British army officer. Mrs. Grant died in 1902, surviving her husband by seventeen years.

Cheers And Boos Follow Nixon's Varied Roles In Nation's Political Arena

Editor's Note—Attack and counterattack, high drama, and relentless determination mark the amazing political rise of Richard Nixon. Pro or con, few people are neutral toward the Republican presidential nominee. This is the first of a series.

By SAUL PETT
CHICAGO (AP)—American will see a double image on its television sets tonight when Richard Milhous Nixon rises to accept the Republican nomination for president.

Few people, it may be reasonably assumed, will see a clear neutral picture free of subjective fuzziness. Few will see the same man.

For seldom have so many Americans been so emotionally divided in advance at the debut of a first-time candidate for president.

Double View
One large group of TV viewers will see only a wholesome, earnest, dedicated, fighting, courageous American.

Another large group will see only a suspicious, overly ambitious, cynical politician.

With few exceptions, Nixon has generated far more heat than most candidates long before he even began his first presidential campaign. He has thrown more tomatoes that stained and he has received more.

For years, he has been the No. 1 tormentor and target of the Democrats. And this year they can be expected to go all out since they no longer have to reach around the protective form of Dwight D. Eisenhower to grab at "his boy" and vice president.

Why?
Probably because Nixon has been involved, as a congressman, senator and vice president, in so many supercharged events that registered in the public consciousness.

Varied Events
The statesmanlike tact and dignity of a young vice president filling in for a dangerously ill, highly popular president; the shocking spittle and flying glass of a roaring Venezuelan mob attacking not just a man but a symbol of America, and the man proved his physical courage. The extraordinary spectacle of a young American standing up to and countering the skillful effectiveness against the supreme dictator of the Soviet Union on his own home grounds.

Let's begin with the campaign of 1946 when an unknown young lawyer from Whittier, Calif., lately discharged from the Navy, took on a well-entrenched Democrat seeking to retain his seat in Congress.

Richard Nixon fought Jerry

Voorhis largely on the premise that a "vote for Nixon is a vote against the Communist-dominated PAC (Political Action Committee of the CIO) with its gigantic slush fund."

Won Decisively
The young Republican won decisively, by more than 15,000 votes.

In 1948, Congressman Nixon, a member of the House Un-American Activities Investigating Committee, heard Whittaker Chambers testify that Alger Hiss had been part of a Communist spy ring within our borders.

The committee then heard Hiss. Most members were inclined to doubt Chambers and believe Hiss at first glance. Not Nixon. He pushed for the great confrontation.

Hiss Suit
They finally met and that led to Hiss' libel suit and the libel suit ultimately led to Hiss' own indictment and conviction for perjury. In 1950, "the man who caught Hiss" ran for the U.S. Senate against Helen Gagan Douglas. Even before she squared off against Nixon, Mrs. Douglas already had had a rough Democratic primary; her opponent had cried out against her "consistent policy of voting along with the notorious New York radical, Vito Marcantonio."

In the general election, Nixon adopted the same theme, only he expanded it, intensified it, dramatized it, hammered away at it with relentless fire. He circulated thousands of "pink sheets" describing the voting record of the "pink lady" and insisting she had voted the same way as Marcantonio no less than 354 times.

Huge Victory
Little was said about the fact many of the votes had nothing to do with communism. Nixon won by 700,000 votes.

He was well on his way toward the hot center of the national campaign. He had the issue and he had the badge as the sheriff who had nabbed Hiss and wrestled two "left-wingers" to the ground. Richard Milhous Nixon was now rolling forward with great momentum but then came the campaign of 1952 and he was almost derailed permanently.

Next: The great campaigns

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad, the Transport Workers Union and the Systems Federation have announced jointly that contract negotiations have been recessed until Aug. 15.

The unions and the railroad have been negotiating daily since July 13 in effort to reconcile a dispute over work rules.

Although the TWU threatened a strike anytime after midnight, July 25, no specific date or time has been announced. Today's statement reiterated that the unions would give the railroad 10 days notice of a walkout.

RULES REFORM IS ANNOUNCED BY POPE JOHN

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII, in major liturgical reform for the Roman Catholic Church, has announced that a new code of rules for the Roman Breviary and Mass will become effective Jan. 1.

In a formal document—a "Motu Proprio" or order by the Pope's "own hand"—the head of the Roman Catholic Church said the new rules will be promulgated soon.

He said the new code combines the rules "in a better form, arranged in a clearer order" and religious services will be shortened and simplified.

Changes Unspecified
He did not specify what changes will be made.

The 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church said a new calendar of the Breviary and Mass also will be issued.

Pope John noted that the rules have undergone constant change through the centuries. He said these changes were "not always in a systematic order and therefore not without damage to the liturgical reforms."

Fail To Revive Dying Boy, Aged 4

A handyman found the 4-year-old child lying face down with his arm draped across an irrigation pipe on his parents' farm five miles from here.

The pipe leaked and the boy was in a puddle of water. There were burns on his arm. Authorities said an electric pump in the well that supplied the pipe with water had short-circuited sending current through the pipe.

The parents rushed Harvey to the police station by car for help. He was their only son.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cedric Gibbons, 65, winner of 11 Academy awards for movie art direction, died Tuesday after a long illness. He retired four years ago after 32 years as head of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer art department.

primitive (original) simplicity and foresight."

Pope John said he decided to propose to the ecumenical council—a meeting of Roman Catholic prelates from around the world, expected to convene in a year or two—a fundamental principles for liturgical reforms.

CONGO SHOULD BE U. N. TRUST

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Belgian government believes this newly independent Congo republic should become a United Nations trust territory, highly placed Belgian sources said today.

"Only a strong United Nations administration can save this country from chaos and disaster," a Belgian official said.

He said it was the view of the Belgian government that there is no other solution to the strife-torn former Belgian colony but to turn it over entirely to the U.N.

A Belgian Embassy spokesman stressed that Belgium will continue to view the Congolese government as virtually nonexistent.

The return of Belgian technicians to help stave off the Congo's economic collapse is impossible at this time the spokesman said. He was commenting on Congolese Finance Minister Pascal Nkanyu's appeal to Belgians to return to their posts.

Different and good: cook chicken livers in butter and use them to top portions of spaghetti and tomato sauce; pass grated Parmesan or Romano cheese.

ULYSSES SIMPSON GRANT

Born at Point Pleasant, Ohio, April 27, 1822. He graduated from West Point in 1843. He served through the Mexican War and after a year in Oregon resigned from the service. Appointed colonel at the start of the Civil War, he was lieutenant general in command of all the Union armies at its close. By an act of Congress he was given the rank of general.

His efforts toward reconstruction increased his popularity and he was chosen the Republican nominee for President in 1868.

Inaugurated the eighteenth President of the United States, March 4, 1869, he served two terms. This was the most corrupt period in U. S. political history. Above suspicion himself, his dependence upon the judgment of friends and politicians resulted in unwise appointments. The panic of 1873 was the outcome of a situation where investment ran into speculation and industrial activity exceeded demand. He measured up to the expectation of the people by settling peaceably the "Alabama" claims against Great Britain, vetoing a currency inflation bill and calling for the resumption of specie payments.

For three years after retirement he toured the world. He sought the Presidential nomination again in 1880 but was not chosen. Again in retirement, he wrote his personal memoirs to recoup the financial loss he incurred in a banking partnership. He died on July 23, 1885, aged 63.

Born in New York City, New York, 1823. He attended common school in New York but grew up in South Bend, Indiana where at twenty-two he was part owner and editor of a weekly newspaper. Elected a member of the United States House of Representatives in 1854, he served continuously until 1869—three times as Speaker. Nominated and elected Vice-President of the United States in 1868, Colfax (pictured above) served four years. The involvement of his name in the Credit Mobilier scandal, near the close of his term, prompted him to retire from politics. He died in 1885.

Ike Urges GOP Candidates To Follow "Middle Road," "Ignore The Gutters"

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday urged Republican candidates to follow "the great middle road" and ignore the gutter, left or right.

Eisenhower held forth to Republican office-seekers at a party breakfast the philosophy of Abraham Lincoln that the government should undertake only those things that the people are unable to do themselves.

"We ought to use it as a flaming battle flag on the highest mast the Republican party can put up and fight for it always," Eisenhower said.

This approach to government is difficult to defend, the President added, and requires intelligent explanation or will be attacked from both flanks.

"But that is exactly what we have to do," he said.

GOP Has Strength

The Republican party possesses great strength, however, Eisenhower said, "because so many people want to go in exactly that direction."

Eisenhower addressed a breakfast meeting of his own Cabinet officers and GOP candidates for various offices. About 600 attended the affair, in the Morrison Hotel.

It was Eisenhower's last scheduled appearance in this convention city before heading with Mrs. Eisenhower for Denver, where he will spend the rest of the week.

"In the operation of any great human organism," Eisenhower told his fellow Republicans, "constructive plans and programs must be developed in what we call the great middle road."

Defeat In Gutters

The President said most people instinctively "grow to like the paved highway stretching before them and they understand that here is where human progress is achieved."

He said, "We are truly a middle of the road party." By that, he added, "I don't mean walking just a wishy-washy path—not at all."

Eisenhower said there are those who insist on "marching in the gutters, the extremes of the right and left," but he declared that they "in the long run are always defeated."

He set forth this goal: "You must find the broad highway and you must ignore the gutters."

In the Republican party, he said, he found few, if any, "who are in the gutters."

CHANGE SITE OF FESTIVAL

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The annual Pennsylvania Dutch Folk Festival, which had been held in Kutztown in Berks County since 1950, will be held in Lancaster County next year.

Dr. Alfred L. Shoemaker, president of the Pennsylvania Folk Life Society said Tuesday the new site will be a 40-acre tract of land in East Lampeter Township, about four miles east of Lancaster.

Dr. Shoemaker said the land was recently purchased for $100,000 from the Educators Mutual Insurance Co. of Lancaster.

He added that the society also would develop on the land what will be known as the "Pennsylvania Folk Life Museum." It will be open on a year-round basis.

Dr. Shoemaker said the festival was being moved primarily to satisfy the demands of tourists "whose interests in the Dutch country are almost exclusively in the Amish."

MAYBE NEXT YEAR

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Mrs. Stella E. Phipps, an 84-year-old grandmother, figured she might have won the Wyoming eliminations for the Mrs. America contest. She entered the contest but dropped out shortly before the event.

Her reason? "It is my duty to take care of my husband, who is 90," she explained. "If I feel any younger next year, I might enter the contest then."

Ike Urges GOP Candidates To Follow "Middle Road," "Ignore The Cutters"

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday urged Republican candidates to follow "the great middle road" and ignore the gutter, left or right.

Eisenhower held forth to Republican office-seekers at a party breakfast the philosophy of Abraham Lincoln that the government should undertake only those things that the people are unable to do themselves.

"We ought to use it as a flaming battle flag on the highest mast the Republican party can put up and fight for it always," Eisenhower said.

This approach to government is difficult to defend, the President added, and requires intelligent explanation or will be attacked from both flanks.

"But that is exactly what we have to do," he said.

GOP Has Strength
The Republican party possesses great strength, however, Eisenhower said, "because so many people want to go in exactly that direction."

Eisenhower addressed a breakfast meeting of his own Cabinet officers and GOP candidates for various offices. About 600 attended the affair, in the Morrison Hotel.

It was Eisenhower's last scheduled appearance in this convention city before heading with Mrs. Eisenhower for Denver, where he will spend the rest of the week.

"In the operation of any great human organism," Eisenhower told his fellow Republicans, "constructive plans and programs must be developed in what we call the great middle road."

Defeat In Gutters
The President said most people instinctively "grow to like the paved highway stretching before them and they understand that here is where human progress is achieved."

Eisenhower said there are those who insist on "marching in the gutters, the extremes of the right and left," but he declared that they "in the long run are always defeated."

He set forth this goal: "You must find the broad highway and you must ignore the gutters."

In the Republican party, he said, he found few, if any, "who are in the gutters."

CHANGE SITE OF FESTIVAL

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The annual Pennsylvania Dutch Folk Festival, which had been held in Kutztown in Berks County since 1950, will be held in Lancaster County next year.

Dr. Alfred L. Shoemaker, president of the Pennsylvania Folk Life Society said Tuesday the new site will be a 40-acre tract of land in East Lampeter Township, about four miles east of Lancaster.

Dr. Shoemaker said the land was recently purchased for $100,000 from the Educators Mutual Insurance Co. of Lancaster.
He added that the society also would develop on the land what will be known as the "Pennsylvania Folk Life Museum." It will be open on a year-round basis.

Dr. Shoemaker said the festival was being moved primarily to satisfy the demands of tourists "whose interests in the Dutch country are almost exclusively in the Amish."

MAYBE NEXT YEAR
CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Mrs. Stella E. Phipps, an 84-year-old grandmother, figured she might have won the Wyoming elimination for the Mrs. America contest. She entered the contest but dropped out shortly before the event.

Her reason?
"It is my duty to take care of my husband, who is 90," she explained. "If I feel any younger next year, I might enter the contest then."

More Than Million Give President Rousing Ovation

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
CHICAGO (AP)—In his long career in the Army and as President of the United States Dwight D. Eisenhower has been cheered all over the world. Now he has been acclaimed again in a manner he'll never forget.
Chicago did it when he arrived in town Tuesday for the Republican National Convention. A throng of about one million roared an exuberant welcome and showered the President and his wife with confetti, ticker tape and gay balloons.
Tuesday night the Republican delegates and their guests cut loose at Convention Hall with a thunderous ovation that obviously touched the President and Mrs. Eisenhower deeply.

Sentimental Journey
It was a sentimental journey back to Chicago for the President and his wife. As they stood arm in arm on the platform, smiling and waving, their thoughts inevitably went back to a July day eight years ago when he was nominated for his first term in the White House.
Now he was approaching the end of his second term and the crowd was saying a rousing farewell.

The crowd wanted Mamie to share it.
"Thank you, Mamie and Ike," banners everywhere proclaimed. "Well done," others read.

The President delivered a fighting speech, hitting at critics and plugging for election of another Republican president. He was interrupted by applause 78 times.

Terrific Welcome
He had a time of it even getting started. An ovation started the moment he was introduced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. The President and the first lady walked arm in arm to the rostrum and the crowd went wild.
On his ride into town in an open car during the afternoon, Eisenhower got one of the most enthusiastic welcomes he has ever received.

More Than Million Give President Rousing Ovation

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
CHICAGO (AP)—In his long career in the Army and as President of the United States Dwight D. Eisenhower has been cheered all over the world. Now he has been acclaimed again in a manner he'll never forget.

Chicago did it when he arrived in town Tuesday for the Republican National Convention. A throng of about one million roared an exuberant welcome and showered the President and his wife with confetti, ticker tape and gay balloons.

Tuesday night the Republican delegates and their guests cut loose at Convention Hall with a thunderous ovation that obviously touched the President and Mrs. Eisenhower deeply.

Sentimental Journey
It was a sentimental journey back to Chicago for the President and his wife. As they stood arm in arm on the platform, smiling and waving, their thoughts inevitably went back to a July day eight years ago when he was nominated for his first term in the White House.

Now he was approaching the end of his second term and the crowd was saying a rousing farewell.

The crowd wanted Mamie to share it.

"Thank you, Mamie and Ike," banners everywhere proclaimed. "Well done," others read.

The President delivered a fighting speech, hitting at critics and plugging for election of another Republican president. He was interrupted by applause 78 times.

Terrific Welcome
He had a time of it even getting started. An ovation started the moment he was introduced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. The President and the first lady walked arm in arm to the rostrum and the crowd went wild.

On his ride into town in an open car during the afternoon, Eisenhower got one of the most enthusiastic welcomes he has ever received.

SHORT SKIRTS, LONG WAISTS, FLAT BUSTS

PARIS (AP) — Designer Yves Saint Laurent of Dior dropped a fashion bomb Wednesday by chopping skirts off short enough to show the kneecap and dropping the waistline nearly to the bottom of the hips.

Busts were flattened and waists swallowed up.

The line was basically a sack, or chemise, with a low-slung bag tacked on at the bottom.

Jackets, too, were dropped drastically to the bottom of the hip, where gathered-on melon skirts took over. Skirts were moderately tucked in at the hem, which usually hit mid-knee level.

Saint Laurent did not baptize his new shape with a name, but it looked a bit like a bomb or elongated melon. It always hung on a long, slack mid-thigh top.

The flapper era influence is strong, but to complicate matters there is an African theme in hats shaped like native huts or ant-hills, and barbaric costume jewelry. Colors are dark for day—brown, black, prune and steel gray; with gold and silver lames, beading and bright shades for evening.

A folksy or down-to-earth touch comes in with knit toboggan caps topped with a wool pom-pom. That they are teamed up with mink and sable does not seem to matter. Several luxurious fur coats have rib-knit sleeves and the knit turtle neck, rolled over into almost a horse collar.

For cocktail and evening there are outright sacks—whatever they may choose to call them this time—and floor-length tents, sometimes dragging yards of mink hem along the floor.

50 NEW FIRES RAGE IN WEST

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Pacific Northwest, its biggest week-old fires still out of control, had more than 50 new lightning-caused fires Wednesday.

The new blazes in Oregon and Washington and Idaho came as a lightning storm passed over the area Tuesday. Most were small and fire fighters rushed to quell them early.

At Boise, Idaho, Bill Logan, 28, was jailed for arson in connection with a 25,000-acre fire that blackened rangeland near Marsing, Idaho, and along the Oregon border.

Continue Struggle

Thousands of fire fighters continued their struggle. The biggest, the 20,000-acre Anthony Lakes fire in the Wallawa-Whitman National forest, remained unchecked.

Other big fires in the Wallawa-Whitman broke over fire lines Tuesday. They were the Cummings Creek fire of 2,000 acres in the Pomeroy district of southeastern Washington; the 5,000-acre Spring Creek fire at the eastern tip of Oregon; and Cow Creek fire, also in eastern Oregon of 1600-acres. The Pony Creek fire in the Snake River Canyon was not ringed by lines and had burned

50 NEW FIRES RAGE IN WEST

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Pacific Northwest, its biggest week-old fires still out of control, had more than 50 new lightning-caused fires Wednesday.

The new blazes in Oregon and Washington and Idaho came as a lightning storm passed over the area Tuesday. Most were small and fire fighters rushed to quell them early.

At Boise, Idaho, Bill Logan, 28, was jailed for arson in connection with a 25,000-acre fire that blackened rangeland near Marsing, Idaho, and along the Oregon border.

Continue Struggle
Thousands of fire fighters continued their struggle. The biggest, the 20,000-acre Anthony Lakes fire in the Wallowa-Whitman National forest, remained unchecked.

Other big fires in the Wallowa-Whitman broke over fire-lines Tuesday. They were the Cummings Creek fire of 2,000 acres in the Pomeroy district of southeastern Washington; the 5,000-acre Spring Creek fire at the eastern tip of Oregon; and Cow Creek fire, also in eastern Oregon, of 16,000 acres. The Pony Creek fire in the Snake River Canyon was not ringed by lines and had burned

Police said Lawrence lost control and his truck crossed into the opposite lanes, ran into marshlands on the side of the road, and was mired in nearly four feet of water.

In Idaho, the 12,000-acre Hells Canyon fire in Payette National Forest; a 4,000-acre Johnson Bar fire in north-central Idaho; and a 7,000-acre brush fire north of Dubois in Targhee National Forest were still out of control.

Boehm Hurts Back As Cart Upsets

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction, Tuesday decided to take a golfing break from an educators' conference.

His electric golf cart upset at the Indiana Country Club and Boehm suffered a fractured bone in his wrist and a sprained back.

He still planned to direct the meeting of about 100 educators at Indiana State College. They are trying to set up a better line of communications between the department and the school districts and colleges.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomatic sources say the Soviet delegate to the United Nations, Arkady A. Sobolev, 57, will be sent home for treatment for heart trouble as soon as he can be moved.

It was learned Tuesday that he suffered a heart attack Saturday and was put to bed in his New York apartment.

A court battle ensued. The referendum results became final and effective six weeks ago. Tuesday in a new referendum, voters reversed the ban. They approved liquor sales 645 to 507.

We're constantly amazed at the number of children without, scrape and bruise themselves within sight (and sound) of our pharmacy. We do a big business in antiseptics, bandages, and other first-aid items. Same everywhere, probably. But sometimes we wonder if people don't depend too much on first aid—neglect proper medical attention. If there's the slightest question in your mind following what appears to be minor injuries, see your physician. First aid has definite limitations. You can only be sure of proper medical care by seeing your doctor. A prompt visit can save a half dozen later.

Lodge Scoffs At Soviet Brutality As Reds Veto Honest Spy Plane Inquiry

By WILLIAMS N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Security Council debate on the American RB47 reconnaissance plane shot down by the Soviets ended Tuesday night with a 9-2 council vote rejecting Soviet charges against the United States and a Soviet veto of the U.S. proposal for an international investigation.

The Soviets also vetoed an Italian proposal that the International Red Cross contact the two surviving crewmen of the American plane, who are being held by the Soviets for trial as spies.

Despite the official impasse, U.N. diplomats chalked up the outcome as a defeat for the Soviet Union and a victory for the United States. They pointed out that on all three resolutions the vote was 9-2, with the Soviet Union and Poland opposed by all nine non-Communist members of the council including Ceylon and Tunisia, which usually abstain from voting on cold war disputes.

Veto Record

Chief U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said the Soviets by blocking an investigation showed "they do not believe their own charge" against the United States. He termed the Italian proposal for the Red Cross to contact the captured fliers a "compassionate resolution."

WILL FIX LOW BUTTERFAT MILK PRICES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's Milk Control Commission expects to fix prices Monday the sale of low butterfat dairy products in the state.

The quick action was promised on the heels of a decision to permit conditional sale of the products which now are outside provisions in the State Milk Code.

An agreement on the matter was reached Wednesday at a meeting of heads of the Department of Justice and Agriculture and the commission.

Two Conditions
Afterward, the conferees announced sales would be permitted under these conditions:

(1) Prices fixed by the commis-

(2) As long as the product is not sold as milk, is not deceptively advertised, and does not violate milk sanitation laws.

GOP In State Code

The situation arose when a Pittsburgh dairy firm sought to market a product with 2 per cent butterfat content at a price lower than whole milk.

The problem also tied to a gap in the state milk code which uses butterfat content as the main basis for milk price regulation.

The code now specifies whole milk must have at least 3 3/4 per cent butterfat. Skim milk may not have more than 1/2 per cent butterfat. There is no law for milk with butterfat content ranging between 1/2 and 3/4 per cent. And legally the product cannot be sold as milk.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The big chimpanzee hunt is over. Four are dead. Five others are back in their pens at the Highland Park Zoo.

Some 30 city policemen, Animal Rescue League employees, zoo officials and park police took part in a 10-hour trackdown that started after the chimps scurried from the zoo Tuesday night.

Four of the chimps eventually wandered back to their homes. Another was trapped near the park and walked peacefully back in a cage.

The fifth was trapped in a nearby garage and put up a stubborn three-hour battle with his captors. Police finally got the better of him with tranquilizers shot from

The other four had to be shot as a last resort in the interest of public safety. The chimps escaped from their island home by making their way across a tree which had been knocked over by heavy winds.

Lodge Scoffs At Soviet Brutality As Reds Veto Honest Spy Plane Inquiry

They pointed out that on all three resolutions the vote was 9-2, with the Soviet Union and Poland opposed by all nine non-Communist members of the council including Ceylon and Tunisia, which usually abstain from voting on cold war disputes.

Veto Record

The vetoes brought the Soviet total to 89 in the council's history.

Chief U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said the Soviets by blocking an investigation showed "they do not believe their own charge" against the United States. He termed the Italian proposal for the Red Cross to contact the captured fliers a "compassionate resolution."

He told the council: "It is a sad thing when a people as warm hearted as the Soviet people is represented by a government as cold-hearted, brutal, hard and cynical as they showed themselves to be tonight."

The Soviets had charged that the RB47, when shot down by a Soviet jet fighter July 1, was on a spy mission over Soviet territorial waters in the Barents Sea. The Soviet resolution that the council rejected would have condemned the United States for aggressive acts and called on it to cease such activity.

Lodge earlier in the debate said the plane was investigating electromagnetic currents in arctic waters for mapping purposes and that it never came closer than 30 miles.

WILL FIX LOW BUTTERFAT MILK PRICES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's Milk Control Commission expects to fix prices Monday the sale of low butterfat dairy products in the state.

The quick action was promised on the heels of a decision to permit conditional sale of the products which now are outside provisions in the State Milk Code.

An agreement on the matter was reached Wednesday at a meeting of heads of the Department of Justice and Agriculture and the commission.

Two Conditions

Afterward, the conferees announced sales would be permitted under these conditions:

(1) Prices fixed by the commission.

(2) As long as the product is not sold as milk, is not deceptively advertised, and does not violate milk sanitation laws.

GOP In State Code

The situation arose when a Pittsburgh dairy firm sought to market a product with 2 per cent butterfat content at a price lower than whole milk.

The problem also tied to a gap in the state milk code which uses butterfat content as the main basis for milk price regulation.

The code now specifies whole milk must have at least 3 1/2 per cent butterfat. Skim milk may not have more than 1/2 per cent butterfat. There is no law for milk with butterfat content ranging between 1/2 and 3 1/2 per cent. And legally the product cannot be sold as milk.

CHIMPANZEE HUNT IS OVER; 4 ARE DEAD

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The big chimpanzee hunt is over. Four are dead. Five others are back in their pens at the Highland Park Zoo.

Some 30 city policemen, Animal Rescue League employees, zoo officials and park police took part in a 10-hour trackdown that started after the chimps scurried from the zoo Tuesday night.

Four of the chimps eventually wandered back to their homes. Another was trapped near the park and walked peacefully back in a cage.

The fifth was trapped in a nearby garage and put up a stubborn three-hour battle with his captors. Police finally got the better of him with tranquilizers shot from a dart gun.

The other four had to be shot as a last resort in the interest of public safety. The chimps escaped from their island home by making their way across a tree which had been knocked over by heavy winds.

Pa. Police Pistol Team To Compete

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state police pistol team will compete in national matches starting Sunday at Camp Perry, Ohio.

A five-man team captained by Sgt. Walter Wise of the State Police Academy at nearby Hershey will be up against top military, police and civilian shooters in the competition.

The Pennsylvanians also will compete in police pistol matches with teams from several eastern states Aug. 6-7 at Allentown, and in the Delaware state police matches at Wilmington Aug. 13-14.

WINNER FOR SURE
LAS ANIMAS, Colo. (AP)—Gilbert Martenson submitted the first entry in the Las Animas Garden Club's beautiful lawn contest.

Martenson claimed his application met every rule — freedom from weeds, freedom from disease, good condition and appearance.

His yard is all concrete and was refurbished recently with green paint.

The club's rules said nothing at all about grass.

HARRISBURG (AP) — A two-year sanitation study has been started by the State Health Department in the greater West Chester area of Chester County. It is designed to improve environmental health conditions. It will cover types of refuse storage, collection and disposal, prevalence of pest and water supply and sewage disposal. Karl M. Mason, state director of environmental health, said Wednesday 3 boroughs and 10 townships have signed up for the study.

To help finance the agreement, the participating communities have allocated $150 each for administrative services. This will cover secretarial services, office expenses and equipment. The boroughs and townships also agreed to encourage community support for the study and to promote any necessary local legislation.

Sanitation Study
In 13 Districts

HARRISBURG (AP) — A two-year sanitation study has been started by the State Health Department in the greater West Chester area of Chester County.

It is designed to improve environmental health conditions. It will cover types of refuse storage, collection and disposal, prevalence

Karl M. Mason, state director of environmental health, said Wednesday 3 boroughs and 10 townships have signed up for the study.

To help finance the agreement, the participating communities have allocated $150 each for administrative services. This will cover secretarial services, office expenses and equipment. The boroughs and townships also agreed to encourage community support for the study and to promote any necessary local legislation.
